RE: People v. Jerrold Elwin Johnson, Case No. S093235

Frank A. McGuire Clerk

Deputy

Dear Ms. Jameson:

Oral argument has been scheduled for the morning of December 2, 2014. Please advise the Court that counsel for respondent intends to respond to the following three issues noted by appellant in his letter of November 7, 2014:

- III. Substantial evidence supports appellant's conviction of carjacking charged in count four and murder committed during the commission or attempted commission of carjacking charged in count one
- IV. Substantial evidence supports the special circumstance in count one
- VI. The court properly admitted evidence of the VonSeggern killing

Respondent will of course be prepared to address any other issues on which the Court has questions.

Sincerely,
