Supplemental briefing ordered

The court invites the Attorney General, or an appropriate state agency to be identified by the Attorney General, to serve and file an amicus curiae brief expressing the State of California's views, to the extent those views are not already articulated in the briefs of the Department of Fish and Wildlife, on the following question: May a comparative analysis modeled on the methodology employed by the California Air Resources Board in its Climate Change Scoping Plan, which compared statewide emissions goals to a statewide "business as usual" scenario, properly be used under CEQA to evaluate the significance of an individual proposed project's greenhouse gas emissions?

The Attorney General's brief is to be served and filed on or before August 7, 2015. The parties may serve and file answer briefs no more than 20 days after the Attorney General's brief is filed under this or any subsequent order of the court.

All briefs shall either (1) be physically filed by the due date in hard copy to the Clerk/Administrator of the court, or (2) submitted by the due date by email to the Clerk/Administrator at Jorge.Navarrete@jud.ca.gov, attaching a pdf file of the brief and subsequently submitting the brief in hard copy to the clerk's office. (The hard copy of a timely submitted pdf will be considered filed as of the time the pdf was received.) The provisions of California Rules of Court, rule 8.25(b)(3) will not apply. In light of the statutory calendar preference (Pub. Resources Code, § 21167.1, subd. (a)), no extensions of time will be granted.

Application for stay denied

The "Application for an order staying appeal pending final approval of class action settlement in the Superior Court," filed on June 24, 2015, is denied without prejudice to the parties settling the underlying lawsuit should they wish to do so. Settling the underlying lawsuit will not render moot the separate dispute before this court in this matter, which itself presents a legal issue of statewide importance.

On the court's own motion, it is ordered that the time to serve and file the Answer Brief on the Merits is extended to August 7, 2015. No further extensions of time are contemplated.
