Title	Probate: Notice of Filing Inventory and Appraisal, Instructions on Objecting to an Inventory and Appraisal, and Objections to an Inventory and Appraisal (adopt form GC-042, approve forms GC-042(MA) and GC-045).
Summary	The proposed new forms would provide a notice of filing an Inventory and Appraisal in a conservatorship or guardianship, instructions to the persons served with the notice on how to object to the Inventory and Appraisal, and simplified plain-language objections to the Inventory and Appraisal.

Discussion	Probate Code section 2610 requires a conservator or guardian of the estate to file an Inventory and Appraisal of the assets of the estate. The inventory is a list of all assets of the estate of which the conservator or guardian has possession or knowledge. The appraisal states the fair market value of each asset as of the date of the fiduciary's appointment. The Inventory and Appraisal is due 90 days after the date of the order appointing the conservator or guardian, or within such longer time as the court may for reasonable cause allow. The Omnibus Conservatorship and Guardianship Reform Act of 2006¹ amended section 2610 to require the conservator or guardian to mail copies of the filed Inventory and Appraisal to the conservatee and the attorneys for the conservatee or ward, the conservatee's spouse or domestic partner, and the conservatee's first-degree relatives, or if none, the conservatee's next closest relative.²

² A conservatee's first-degree relatives are his or her parents and children.

Amended section 2610 also requires the conservator or guardian to serve with the copies of the filed Inventory and Appraisal a notice of how to object to it. Section 2610(e) requires the Judicial Council to develop a form to implement this notice.

The Probate and Mental Health Advisory Committee proposes the adoption or approval of the following three forms to accomplish the task assigned to the Judicial Council by the Legislature

Notice of Filing of Inventory and Appraisal and How to Object to Appraisal (form GC-042);

Objections to Inventory and Appraisal of Conservator or Guardian (form GC-045); and Attachment to Notice of Filing of Inventory and Appraisal and How to Object to Appraisal (form GC-042(MA)).

Form GC-042

This mandatory form would advise persons to whom it is mailed that the conservator or guardian has filed an Inventory and Appraisal of a specified type on a specified date (item 1 on page 1). Instructions on how to object to the Inventory and Appraisal follow in items 2–4. Instructions to the conservator or guardian on the use of the form are provided in the text box at the top of page 2.

The instructions on page 1 describe the written objections to “any and all appraisals” authorized by Probate Code section 2614. That section requires the objections to be filed within 30 days of the date the inventory was filed, and requires notice of hearing and a copy of the objections to be served in the manner and for the period required by Probate Code sections 1460–1469.³ If objection is made to an appraisal of a non-cash asset by a probate referee, the referee must also be served.

³ Service by mail of written notice of the hearing at least 15 days before the hearing date to: (1) the guardian or conservator; (2) the conservatee or the ward who is at least 12 years of age or if not, to the persons identified in section 1460.1; (3) the ward’s or conservatee’s spouse or the conservatee’s domestic partner; and (4) any person who has requested special notice under section 2700 (Prob. Code, § 1460).

Item 3 on page 1 of form GC-042 provides instructions on filing objections, including mention of the proposed new form of objections, form GC-045, and on serving notice of the hearing on the objections. Item 4 on page 1 of form GC-042 is a summary of the provisions of Probate Code section 2614(c).

Section 2614 describes objections to an Inventory and Appraisal as objections to one, more than one, or all appraisals contained in it. These objections do not reach another important issue that might be disclosed by a filed inventory: The absence of an asset that the objecting party believes should have been included as an asset of the conservatee's or ward's estate. Form GC-042 addresses that issue in item 1 on page 1 of the form. If the Inventory and Appraisal is designated as a final inventory or is filed on or after the date the final inventory is due, a party may object to the entire inventory and all partial inventories filed before it on the ground that they do not list an asset which should have been included in the estate. See the following discussion concerning proposed form GC-045.

Form GC-045

The Legislature did not specifically require the Judicial Council to develop a form of objections to an Inventory and Appraisal. However, the advisory committee concluded that the best way to instruct interested persons, especially those not represented by counsel, on how to file these objections was to develop a simplified form of objections and provide instructions on its use.

Proposed form GC-045 is an optional form, designed primarily for use by persons other than the fiduciary to object to a filed Inventory and Appraisal, although the conservator or guardian could also use the form for this purpose (see the first line of item 4 on page 1 of the form). The possible objecting parties identified in item 4 are those authorized to file objections under Probate Code section 2614.

The objections would be stated on page 2 of the form, in item 5. There are three types of objections described. The first is an objection to an entire final inventory, or to any inventory filed after the due date of the inventory of the entire estate whether or not designated as a final inventory and all prior inventories on the ground that an asset which should have been included in the estate was not included. The second is an objection to the appraisal of every asset contained in the identified Inventory and Appraisal. The third is an objection to one or more appraisals, but less than all, contained in the identified Inventory and Appraisal.

The form advises that an objection to a final inventory on the ground that an asset of the estate has not been listed is not a petition for an order of the court conveying or transferring the property under Probate Code sections 850–859. Such petitions are substitutes for civil actions to quiet title to or recover property held by an estate but claimed by a third party or held by a third party but claimed by an estate. They are beyond the scope of this simplified form.

This advice has been placed in the form to put the objecting party on notice that the objections may not directly lead to recovery of property claimed to be part of the conservatee’s or ward’s estate. The advisory committee believes, however, that such objections may be a useful tool to put the fiduciary on notice that he or she should consider taking action to collect property previously unknown to him or her.

Objections on this ground might also lead to a petition under section 850 or other action by the court short of such litigation to resolve the objecting party’s concern about the absent property.

Form GC-042(MA)

This optional form is proposed as an attachment to form GC-042 to list the names and addresses of persons served with that notice who could not be included in the proof of mailing on page 2 of that form.

Copies of forms GC-042, GC-042(MA) and GC-045 are attached beginning at page 5.
