Title	Appellate Procedure: Records in Civil and Criminal Cases (amend and renumber Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.120 as rule 8.122, adopt new rules 8.120, 8.121 and 8.123, amend rules 8.124, 8.128, 8.130, 8.134, 8.137, 8.144, 8.147, 8.224, and 8.320, and revise Notice Designating Record on Appeal form (APP-003))
Summary	This proposal would make several clarifying changes to the rules concerning the record on appeal in civil and criminal cases, including: (1) adding a new rule that clearly lays out all the different options for providing the record of the documents and the oral proceedings from the trial court in a civil appeal; (2) providing for a single notice that informs the trial court what form of the record of the documents and what form of the record of the oral proceedings (if any) the appellant elects to use in a civil appeal; (3) making the language regarding jury instructions and motions in the clerk's transcript consistent in the rules for both civil and criminal appeals; (4) establishing a new procedure for designating and transmitting to the reviewing court administrative records that were presented to the trial court; and (5) requiring that the index of exhibits in the reporter's transcript identify each exhibit by letter or number and a brief description of the exhibit. This proposal would also revise the optional form that appellants can use to designate the record on appeal in a civil case, Notice Designating Record on Appeal (form APP-003) to: (1) reflect the proposed changes to the record designation rules; (2) add a box that the appellant can check to indicate that he or she will be using the superior court file instead of a clerk's transcript under rule 8.134; (3) add a box that the appellant can use to request a reporter's transcript in computer-readable format.

Discussion	Record Designation in Civil Appeals
	Rules Rules 8.120, 8.124, 8.128, 8.130, 8.134, and 8.137 of the California Rules of Court address alternative forms of the record of the documents filed in the trial court and/or the record of the oral proceedings in the trial court that may be used in civil appeals. These rules relate, respectively, to clerk's transcripts, appendixes, use of the superior court file in lieu of a clerk's transcript, reporter's transcripts, agreed statements, and settled statements. To clarify that these are alternative forms of the record, this proposal would adopt a new rule that more clearly lays out all of the options that an appellant may use to provide the record of the documents filed in the trial court and/or the record of the oral proceedings in the trial court.

Each of these rules currently contains a separate provision that requires the appellant to notify the court if he or she elects to use that particular form of the record. All of these separate provisions require that these notices be filed within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed. This proposal would replace all of these separate notice requirements with a single rule requiring the appellant to file a notice designating the record within 10 days after filing the notice of appeal. In this notice, the appellant would be required to indicate what form of the record on appeal he or she elects to use. The trial court clerk would be required to send a copy of this notice to the reviewing court.

Adding these new rules would require renumbering current rule 8.120, relating to clerk's transcripts, as rule 8.122 and correcting existing cross-references to rule 8.120 in several other rules.

Form APP-003

Form APP-003, Notice Designating Record on Appeal, is an optional form that parties in civil appeals can use to inform the trial court how they have elected to provide the record on appeal and to designate the materials that they would like to be included in a clerk's or reporter's transcript, or both. This proposal would revise this form to reflect the proposed new rules relating to filing a single notice designating the record on appeal. In addition, this proposal would make several other changes to this form.

Rule 8.128 permits parties to use the original superior court file instead of a clerk's transcript if the reviewing court has a local rule permitting this practice and if the parties stipulate to proceed in this manner. Form APP-003, Notice Designating Record on Appeal, however, does not currently include any space for parties to indicate that they have stipulated to provide the record as permitted under rule 8.128. This proposal would revise form APP-003 to add such a space.

Rule 8.224 permits parties to designate for transmittal to the Court of Appeal an original exhibit that was admitted in evidence, refused, or lodged in the trial court but that was not copied in the clerk's transcript or the appendix. This proposal would revise form APP-003 to add a space where parties can make this designation.

This proposal would also revise form APP-003 to add a space where parties can request a copy of the reporter's transcript in computer-readable format. Code of Civil Procedure section 271, Government Code section 69954, and rule 8.130 of the California Rules of Court all provide for copies of the reporter's transcript in computer-readable format. Code of Civil Procedure section 271 provides, in relevant part: "(a) Any court, party, or other person entitled to a transcript may request that it be delivered in computer-readable form, except that an original transcript shall be on paper." Government Code section 69954, in turn, specifies the rates to be paid to court reporters for copies of transcripts that are in computer-readable format. Finally, rule 8.130(f) provides that, if requested, the reporter must provide any party with a copy of the reporter's transcript in computer-readable format. The proposed revision to form APP-003 would assist litigants in making requests for such a transcript.

Clerk's Transcripts in Civil and Criminal Appeals

Rule 8.120 (which would be renumbered as rule 8.122 under this proposal) and rule 8.320 address clerk's transcripts in civil and criminal appeals, respectively. Both of these rules list jury instructions and motions among the documents that can or must be included in a clerk's transcript. Currently, however, these rules use different language to refer to these documents. This proposal would revise these rules to make the language regarding jury instructions and motions in both rules consistent. In addition, the language regarding jury instructions would be broadened to more clearly encompass written jury instructions from the trial judge among the documents that can or must be in the clerk's transcript.

Transmission of Administrative Records on Appeal

The rules relating to records in civil appeals to do not currently address how an administrative record that was admitted in evidence, refused, or lodged in the trial court should be included in the record on appeal. It is the committee's understanding that practices differ among the Court of Appeal districts and divisions. Some districts/divisions allow these records to be included as part of an appendix under rule 8.124. Others require that the original administrative record be transmitted to the trial court as an exhibit under rule 8.224.

This proposal would add a new rule addressing how administrative records from the trial court proceedings are to be handled. Similar in concept to the procedure for transmitting exhibits under rule 8.224, proposed new rule 8.123 would require that, if a party designates an administrative record in its notice designating the record on appeal, the original administrative record would be transmitted to the reviewing court. Unlike rule 8.224, however, proposed new rule 8.123 would require that an administrative record be transmitted in time for it to be available to the reviewing court when the parties' briefs are filed. If a clerk's transcript or reporter's transcript is used, the administrative record would be transmitted to the reviewing court by the clerk with the record on appeal. If neither a clerk's transcript nor a reporter's transcript is used, the clerk would be required to transmit the administrative record to the reviewing court within 70 days after the notice designating the record on appeal is filed, which is when the appellant's opening brief and either an appellant's or a joint appendix are due under rules 8.124 and 8.212 when no reporter's transcript is used.

Proposed new rule 8.121 regarding designating the record would also include provisions designed to implement this procedure. Under rule 8.121, an appellant would be required to designate the record of an administrative proceeding that was admitted in evidence, refused, or lodged in the superior court if the appellant intends to raise any issue that requires consideration of that record. If the appellant does not designate such an administrative record, the respondent would be given an opportunity to do so. In addition, rules 8.120 (which would be renumbered as rule 8.122) relating to clerk's transcripts, and rule 8.124 relating to appendices, would be amended to clarify that copies of an administrative record must not be included in either a clerk's transcript or an appendix, but must be transmitted to the reviewing court under rule 8.123.

Index of Exhibits in Reporter's Transcripts

Rule 8.144 requires that a reporter's transcript contain an index listing the volume and page where any exhibit is marked for identification and where it is admitted or refused. Although rule 8.144 does not currently address this, it is the committee's understanding that the general practice is for court reporters to include in this index a brief description of each exhibit. This brief description is helpful to both litigants and the courts when reviewing reporter's transcripts. This proposal would conform the rules to this general practice by amending rule 8.144 to require that the index identify each exhibit by letter or number and a brief description of the exhibit. Attachment

Rule 8.120 of the California Rules of Court would be amended and renumbered as rule 8.122, new rules 8.120, 8.121 and 8.123 would be adopted, rules 8.124, 8.128, 8.130, 8.134, 8.144, 8.147, 8.244, and 8.137 would be amended and Judicial Council form APP-003 would be revised, effective January 1, 2008, to read:

1 In support of or opposition to pleadings or motions, the parties may have filed a number of

2 3 lengthy documents in the proceedings in superior court, including, for example, declarations, memorandums, trial briefs, documentary exhibits (e.g., insurance policies, contracts, deeds), and

4 photocopies of judicial opinions or other publications. Subdivision (b)(2)(A) prohibits the inclusion of such documents in an appendix when they are not necessary for proper consideration

5 6 of the issues raised in the appeal. Even if a document is otherwise includable in an appendix, the

7 rule prohibits the inclusion of any substantial portion of the document that is not necessary for

8 proper consideration of the issues raised in the appeal. The prohibition is intended to simplify and

9 therefore expedite the preparation of the appendix, to reduce its cost to the parties, and to relieve

10 the courts of the burden of reviewing a record containing redundant, irrelevant, or immaterial

11 documents. The provision is adapted from rule 30-1.4 of the United States Circuit Rules (9th 12 Cir.).

14 Subdivision (b)(3)(2)(B) prohibits the inclusion in an appendix of transcripts of oral proceedings 15 that may be made part of a reporter's transcript. (Compare rule 8.130(e)(3) [the reporter must not 16 copy into the reporter's transcript any document includable in the clerk's transcript under rule 17 8.1208.122].) The prohibition is intended to prevent a party filing an appendix from evading the 18 requirements and safeguards imposed by rule 8.130 on the process of designating and preparing a 19 reporter's transcript, or the requirements imposed by rule 8.144(d) on the use of daily or other 20 transcripts instead of a reporter's transcript (i.e., renumbered pages, required indexes). In 21 addition, if an appellant were to include in its appendix a transcript of less than all the 22 proceedings, the respondent would not learn of any need to designate additional proceedings 23 (under rule 8.130(a)(2)(3)) until the appellant had served its appendix with its brief, when it 24 would be too late to designate them. Note also that a party may file a certified transcript of 25 designated proceedings instead of a deposit for the reporter's fee (rule 8.130(b)(3)). 26

27 Subdivision (d). * * *

28

29 Subdivision (e). Subdivision (e)(2) requires a joint appendix to be filed with the appellant's 30 opening brief. The provision is intended to improve the briefing process by enabling the 31 appellant's opening brief to include citations to the record. To provide for the case in which a 32 respondent concludes in light of the appellant's opening brief that the joint appendix should have 33 included additional documents, subdivision (b)(6)(4) permits such a respondent to present in an 34 appendix filed with its respondent's brief (see subd.-(e)(3)) any document that could have been 35 included in the joint appendix.

37 Under subdivision (e)(2)-(4) an appendix is required to be filed "with" the associated brief. This 38 provision is intended to clarify that an extension of a briefing period ipso facto extends the filing 39 period of an appendix associated with the brief. 40
