2 What Are the Facts of This Case?

You do not need to fill out this item if you agree with what the appellant's opening brief says are the facts. If you do not agree with what the appellant's opening brief says are the facts, please describe the facts presented to the trial court that are relevant to the parties' arguments on appeal. For each fact you mention, cite the page or pages of the record where it shows that the fact was presented to the trial court. Read item 8 on How to Use Form APP-201 in Limited Civil Cases (form APP-201-INFO) before filling out this section.

Check here if there is not enough space for your answer. Continue your answer on an attached sheet of paper, and write "Attachment 2" at the top.

3 What Are Your Responses to Appellant's Arguments?

In responding to the arguments made in the appellant's opening brief, you should try to explain why the trial court was correct in the decision the appellant is challenging on appeal. Refer to facts presented to the trial court as well as the statutes, cases, court rules, constitutions, or other legal authorities that support your responses. Read item 9 on How to Use form APP-201 in Limited Civil Cases (form APP-201-INFO) before filling out this section.

a. Response 1.

- (1) What is the first argument in the Appellant's Opening Brief to which you are responding? Briefly describe the argument.
 Check here if there is not enough space for your answer. Continue your answer on an attached sheet of paper, and write "Attachment 3a(1)" at the top.

- (2) What is your response to that argument? Include the law and/or facts that support your response.
