I. CLOSED SESSION (CAL. RULES OF COURT, RULE 10.75(C)(3))

Call to Order and Roll Call

Item 1

Domestic Violence and Family Law Protective Orders: Rule and Form Changes to Implement Senate Bill 459

This proposal was previously presented to the committee on February 5, 2024, to implement SB 459. The proposal recommends that the Judicial Council adopt a new series of domestic violence restraining order forms to allow either party to request to change or end a domestic violence restraining order. The proposal also recommends changes to existing family law forms and a family law rule of court to reflect the new proposed process. This proposal is being resubmitted to provide the committee an opportunity to review the revised forms and draft report post-comment.

Item 2

Protective Orders: Rule and Form Changes to Domestic Violence Forms to Implement Senate Bill 92

This proposal recommends that the Judicial Council revise a number of domestic violence restraining order forms to include body armor prohibitions (Assembly Bill 92). Note that this proposal in the Invitation to Comment, included changes to implement SB 599. Based on the committee's discussion on June 3, 2024, the proposed changes to implement SB 599 are deferred to the winter cycle.

Item 3

Juvenile Law: Restraining Orders

This proposal was previously presented to the committee on February 5, 2024, and implements Assembly Bill 1621 (Gipson; Stats. 2022, ch. 76) and Assembly Bill 92 (Connolly; Stats. 2023, ch. 232). AB 1621 redefines "firearm precursor parts" and AB 92 specifies that a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms is also prohibited from possessing, owning, or buying body armor. The committee also proposes a new notice of hearing form that is separate from the temporary restraining order forms and a new rule clarifying the requirement that the juvenile court that has jurisdiction of a child or youth must hear requests for restraining orders initiated by or brought against the child or youth.

This proposal is being resubmitted to provide the committee an opportunity to review the revised rule, forms, and draft report post-comment. The post-comment revisions include changing “child or youth” in proposed rule 5.632 to “child”; and renaming Juvenile Restraining Order After Hearing—Against a Child (form JV 265) to Juvenile Restraining Order Against a Child—Order After Hearing. The majority of revisions were minor edits for clarity such as clarifying applicable code sections, and minor changes to improve readability and grammar.
