NOTICE AND SERVICE INFORMATION

If you want to change a judgment or permanent order for child custody, visitation, or child support, a person at least 18 years of age or older must serve the request on the other party by (1) personal delivery or (2) first-class mail or airmail, postage prepaid. Requests to modify a judgment or permanent order for matters other than child custody, visitation, or child support must be served on the other party by personal service.

• If your request is to change a judgment or permanent orders only for child support and a local child support agency is currently providing services, the other party may be served by mail at the office of the local child support agency. Where service is made by mail on the local child support agency, the following apply:

1. The local child support agency must be served not less than 30 days before the hearing date.
2. Attach a copy of this completed form to the proof of service by mail; and
3. File this original form at the court clerk's office.

• If your request is to change a judgment or permanent order for child custody, visitation, or child support and you have verified the other party's current residence or office address, you must:

1. Complete this form to provide the other party's current residence or business address and indicate how you obtained the other party's current residence or office address.
2. Attach a copy of this completed form to the proof of service by mail; and
3. File this original form at the court clerk's office.

• If you cannot verify the other party's current residence or office address, mail service may not be used. The other party must be personally served. Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330) may be used for this purpose.
