PC-3 Child Interview
John Moran, Ph.D.
David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.

Child's Name _____
Date _____ Brought by _____

INTRODUCTION: I am going to ask you to grade your Mom/Dad on things that parents do. These are the grades:

A = Excellent Job
B = Good Job
C = OK Job
D = Needs Improvement
F – Needs a Lot of Help

	My Mom / My Dad	A	B	C	D	F	Examples:
	I. NURTURING
	Shared Affection/Participation
1	Gives me hugs and kisses
2	Says things that make me feel special
3	I like giving my parents hugs and kisses
4	Helps me enjoy spending time with him/her
5	Drives me and my friends places we want to go
6	Visits my school and comes to my sports activities
7	Plays games and sports with me
8	Watches TV/movies with me
	Responsiveness
9	Is a good listener when I feel sad
10	Understands how I feel about his/her girlfriend/boyfriend
11	Comforts me when my feelings are hurt

© (2012) John Moran, Ph.D. and David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.

	My Mom / My Dad	A	B	C	D	F	Examples:
12	Does not embarrass me in front of my friends
13	Is kind when I feel sick
14	Sets aside time when I need him/her to talk
	Protection
15	Makes me wear sunscreen and protective sports gear on bicycles, ATV's, rollerblades, etc
16	Makes me feel safe when I am at home or in a car with him/her
17	Does not say sexual things that make me feel uncomfortable
18	Has nutritious food around the house
19	Does not yell at me
20	Has a savings account for me
21	Understands when something is too difficult for me to do
22	Is good at helping me try new things which frighten me
	II. TEACHING
	Communication with Child
23	Has heart-to-heart talks with me about what is right and wrong
24	Teaches me how to respond to emergencies like if somebody gets sick or hurt, if I'm locked out of the house, when a stranger tries to talk to me
25	Explains human sexuality to me

© (2012) John Moran, Ph.D. and David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.

	My Mom / My Dad	A	B	C	D	F	Examples:
26	Listens to what I say carefully when we have an argument
27	Makes it easy to talk to about my problems
28	Makes it easy to talk comfortably with him/her about my other parent
	Managing/Supervising
29	Takes me to special learning activities like museums, national parks, theatre plays, puppet shows and stuff like that
30	Knows what movies I watch or what computer sites I visit
31	Knows what my teachers are like and what is going on at school
32	Knows if I am getting along good with teachers, coaches and friends
33	Talks with me about what to do or say to bullies and friends who are mean to me
	Discipline
34	Stays calm and does not get angry when I break a rule
35	Talks to me calmly when I get in trouble so I learn to make better choices
36	Does not hit, punch, slap or grab me
37	Gives consequences and punishments that are fair when I break a rule

© (2012) John Moran, Ph.D. and David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.

	My Mom / My Dad	A	B	C	D	F	Examples:
38	I know he/she means it if they say I have to do something
39	Is nice, not bossy or mean, when telling me to do things
	Modeling
40	Usually is in a happy mood
41	Calms down quickly when he/she gets upset
42	Does not smoke cigarettes or drink too much alcohol
43	Is patient
44	Can be counted on to do what he/she says they will do
45	Apologizes to me when he/she makes a mistake
46	Respects my privacy: for example, does not go through my personal journal or phone history
47	Does not say mean things about other people, including minority groups such as Blacks, Jews, Hispanics, Arabs, Gays
	III. CO-PARENTING
	Communication with Co-Parent
48	Keeps my other parent informed about my activities, school grades, friends, school, etc.
49	Is friendly at doctor appointments when my other parent is there

© (2012) John Moran, Ph.D. and David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.

	My Mom / My Dad	A	B	C	D	F	Examples:
50	Is friendly to my other parent when they meet at school and when he/she calls on the phone
51	Tells me I can take my stuff between houses if I want to Supporting
52	Tells me to telephone or text my other parent and to return their phone calls
53	Does not get angry at my other parent when I am close enough to hear
54	Does not ask questions about my other parent's private life
55	Does not make me talk about which home I want to spend most of my time in
56	Helps me to send cards or gifts to my other parent for holidays, birthdays, when they are sick
57	Does not tell me to keep secrets from my other parent
58	Talks about my other parent in kind and loving ways
59	Makes nice comments about the gifts and cards I get from my other parent
60	Is on time to pick me up at exchanges
61	Enjoys himself/herself while I am with my other parent

© (2012) John Moran, Ph.D. and David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.

	My Mom / My Dad	A	B	C	D	F	Examples:
62	Compliments me on how I resemble my other parent, for example: "You have beautiful hair like your mother"
63	Encourages me to pray for my other parent
64	Keeps pictures of my other parent at his/her home
65	Wants me to have good relationships with relatives on both sides of the family
66	Changes the parenting schedule so that I can attend special activities

© (2012) John Moran, Ph.D. and David Weinstock, J.D., Ph.D.