  - (2) submit an Application for the Law Office Study Program with the required documentation and the fee set forth in the Schedule of Charges and Deadlines at least 30 days prior to the intended date of beginning study;
  - (3) submit a declaration from either an active licensee in good standing of the State Bar who has practiced law continuously for at least four years in any United States jurisdiction and actively practiced law in California or taught law in a California law school for at least two years immediately preceding the time of supervision, or from a judge of a court of record of California, in which the licensee or judge attests to the supervision of the general applicant's study in the Law Office Study Program pursuant to the requirements of subsection (G) of this rule; and
  - (4) obtain State Bar approval of an Application for the Law Office Study Program prior to beginning study.
- (C) The State Bar will deem an Application for the Law Office Study Program complete when all required documentation has been submitted and the required fee paid. The State Bar will notify the general applicant if an application has been deemed incomplete. The general applicant must cure all deficiencies within 60 days of receipt of the notification or the application will be deemed abandoned, absent a showing of good cause. No refund of fees will be issued for an abandoned application.

- (D) If the State Bar denies an Application for the Law Office Study Program, the general applicant will receive a refund of fees submitted with the application, excluding credit card processing fees.
- (E) A general applicant in the Law Office Study Program will:
  - (1) not receive credit for hours of study completed before the State Bar has approved the Application for the Law Office Study Program; and
  - (2) only receive credit for study in six-month increments (“six-month study period”), as described in subdivision (F) of this rule. Any study hours completed outside of a qualifying six-month study period will not be counted towards the four-year legal education requirement of rule 4.26(B)(1).
- (F) To receive credit for a six-month study period, a general applicant in the Law Office Study Program must:
  - (1) study law under the supervision of an attorney or judge for at least 72 hours per month for six consecutive months lasting at least 24 weeks and no longer than 26 weeks; and
  - (2) submit a report (“semi-annual report”) within 30 days of completion of each six-month study period that conforms to the requirements on the State Bar’s form or as otherwise directed by the State Bar, with the fee set forth in the Schedule of Charges and Deadlines.
- (G) The attorney or judge who supervises the general applicant in the Law Office Study Program must:

Such general applicants will not receive study-hour credit for time spent engaging in activities undertaken as part of the Certified Law Student Program. A general applicant participating in both the Law Office Study Program and the Certified Law Student Program as well as the applicant's supervisors in both programs must make good faith efforts to mitigate or prevent any actual or potential conflicts of interest or ethical concerns that might arise from the general applicant's dual role. For example, a general applicant who studies in the Law Office Study Program under the supervision of a judge should avoid appearing before that same judge when representing a client in the Certified Law Student Program.
- (K) General applicants in the Law Office Study Program must submit an application with the fee set forth in the Schedule of Charges and Deadlines to change the supervisor under whom the applicant studies at least 15 days prior to beginning study with a new supervisor who meets the requirements of subsection (B)(3) of this rule. A general applicant who has been terminated from the program and wishes to resume studying under this rule must submit a new Application for the Law Office Study Program with the required documentation and fee. A general applicant who resumes study after being terminated from the program will receive credit for any six-month study periods recognized by the State Bar prior to the termination.
- (N) If the supervisor attests, under subsection (G)(5) of this rule, that the general applicant has not demonstrated sufficient academic progress to proceed to the next six-month study period, or fails to provide an attestation, the general applicant's participation in the Law Office Study Program will be terminated unless:
  - (1) within one year from the conclusion of the last completed six-month study period, the general applicant repeats the course of study for which the supervisor submitted either a negative attestation or failed to provide an attestation and submits a semi-annual report; and
  - (2) the general applicant's current supervisor submits an attestation that the general applicant demonstrates sufficient academic progress to proceed to the next six-
