

Judicial Council Travel and Expense Reimbursement Guidelines for Contractors

REVISED: JANUARY 1, 2025

Judicial Council of California

Judicial Council's Travel and Expense Reimbursement Guidelines (Contractors)
Effective for travel on or after January 1, 2025

1. At Judicial Council's sole discretion, and only if expressly specified by the Judicial Council in a Service Work Order and so agreed to by Contractor prior to performance of the Work, the Judicial Council shall reimburse Contractor for actual and reasonable transportation, lodging, and meal and incidental expenses (M&IE) actually incurred by Contractor's and its Subcontractors' employees when actually incurred in the course of their performance of the Work, but subject to the following:
 - 1.1 If transportation is authorized, the Judicial Council will reimburse Contractor only at the actual cost incurred for tickets for air, rail, bus, rental car, or other forms of public transportation. The lowest cost ticket available must be purchased. Receipts are required for rental cars and air travel. For ticketless travel, the traveler's itinerary may be submitted in lieu of a receipt.
 - A. All air transportation is limited to coach fares and must be booked a minimum of fourteen (14) Business Days prior to travel unless the Project Manager agrees in writing to a shorter period.
 - B. The actual costs of cab fare, public parking, and tolls are reimbursable. Receipts are required for all expenses of $3.50 or more.
 - C. If private vehicle ground transportation expense is authorized, the Judicial Council will reimburse Contractor at the then published Federal mileage cents per mile, pursuant to <https://www.irs.gov/tax-professionals/standard-mileage-rates>.
 - 1.2 If overnight lodging is authorized, the Judicial Council will reimburse Contractor only at the actual cost incurred, up to the maximum daily amounts listed below. Receipts are required and each day of lodging claimed must be listed separately. Actual lodging cost per night, not to exceed the following rates supported by a zero-balance receipt, plus applicable tax (if not waived by the lodging establishment):
 - A. In-State - The Judicial Council will reimburse Contractor only for hotel room rental at the actual cost, but not to exceed the following:

- B. Out-of-State – The Judicial Council will reimburse Contractor only for hotel room rental at the actual cost up to the federal lodging rate, plus occupancy tax and/or energy surcharge. The U.S. Department of State Standardized Regulations (federal) lodging rates are accessible on the internet at <http://www.gsa.gov/portal/category/100000>. (Click on “Per Diem Rates” under the TRAVEL pull-down menu;
- C. Meal and Incidental Expenses (M&IE) – The Judicial Council will reimburse Contractor a single amount per calendar day for actual M&IE incurred, less any provided meals. The standard maximum allowance for a single calendar day of travel, when that day is neither the first nor last day of travel, will be $68. For the first and last day of travel during a multi-day trip, the maximum allowance will be up to 75 percent of the standard rate, or $51. Likewise, for a single day trip lasting more than 12 but less than 24 hours, the maximum allowance will be up to 75 percent of the standard rate, or $51. When meals are provided, the traveler must deduct the applicable meal cost from the daily allowance, based on the individual rates listed on the “Applicable M&IE Rates” chart appearing on page 3 of this document. Travelers are not eligible for M&IE reimbursement for travel of less than 12 hours.

M&IE reimbursement rates will be based on travel time frames as follows:

M&IE Time Frames
When travel status is		Maximum reimbursement for actual expenses is
More than 12 but less than 24 hours		Actual expense up to 75% of the applicable M&IE standard rate per day (up to $51)
24 hours or more, on	First day of travel	Actual expense up to 75% of the applicable M&IE standard rate per day (up to $51)
	Full days of travel in between	Actual expense up to 100% of the applicable M&IE standard rate per day (up to $68)
	Last day of travel	Actual expense up to 75% of the applicable M&IE standard rate per day (up to $51)
Less than 12 hours		Not eligible for M&IE reimbursement

The applicable M&IE chart below provides the daily M&IE total as well as the individual meal rates to be used for deduction from the M&IE total, if any meals were furnished to the traveler. If a traveler is provided a meal on the first or last day of travel, they should deduct the applicable meal rate listed below from the $51 maximum reimbursement rate.
