Draft Judicial Council Report Regarding
AB 1058 Program 2026–27 Funding
Allocations

Background

The AB 1058 Funding Allocation Joint Subcommittee was formed in 2015 to review the historical AB 1058 program funding methodology. On January 16, 2019, the Judicial Council approved a new workload-based funding methodology for the AB 1058 Child Support Commissioner program while maintaining the historical Family Law Facilitator funding methodology until 2021–22 as recommended by the subcommittee.¹ On July 9, 2021, the Judicial Council approved a new population-based methodology for the FLF program and maintained the workload-based methodology with updated workload data for the CSC program. The Judicial Council directed that each methodology be updated with new data every two years.

¹ More details can be found in the Judicial Council report for the January 2019 meeting: Judicial Council of Cal., Advisory Com. Rep., Child Support: AB 1058 Child Support Commissioner and Family Law Facilitator Program Funding Allocation (Nov. 21, 2018), <https://jcc.legistar.com/View.ashx?M=F&ID=6953308&GUID=A6F15A78-08B6-42DA-8826-19A6AF0B7CB1>.

On September 25, 2020, the Judicial Council approved a temporary budget reduction methodology to allocate the $7 million budget reduction to the AB 1058 Child Support Commissioner and Family Law Facilitator Program as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.² Funding was then restored at the July 2021 council meeting for 2021–22. On October 1, 2021, the Judicial Council approved an allocation of $4.45 million in new base funding made available to the AB 1058 program in the Budget Act of 2021. Of the new funding, 75 percent was distributed to the CSC side of the program and prorated to courts with unmet need as determined by the CSC workload-based funding methodology. The remainder of the new funding was distributed to the FLF side of the program, with the majority prorated to courts with unmet need and the remainder prorated to all courts as determined by the FLF population-based funding methodology.²

For 2025-26, the Child Support Commissioner funding methodology was updated with new workload data and the Family Law Facilitator was updated with current population data consistent with the previously adopted methodologies.

The committee is asked to review the draft Judicial Council report and make recommendations on funding allocations discussed in the report. The draft Judicial Council Report recommendations from the Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee are as follows:

Proposal

The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee makes recommendations to the Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee to take the following actions:

1. Approve the committee’s recommendation for 2026-27 AB 1058 Child Support Commissioner program funding comprised of the base funding allocations and federal drawdown funding using the methodology adopted by the Judicial Council in January 2019 as set forth in Attachment A of the draft report to the Judicial Council.
2. Approve the committee’s recommendation for 2026-27 AB 1058 Family Law Facilitator program funding comprised of the base funding allocations and federal drawdown funding using the methodology adopted by the Judicial Council in January 2021 as set forth in Attachment B of the draft report to the Judicial Council.

Executive Summary

The Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council approve the allocation of funding for the Assembly Bill 1058 Child Support Commissioner and Family Law Facilitator Program for fiscal year 2026–27. The funds are provided through a cooperative agreement between the California Department of Child Support Services and the Judicial Council, which requires the council to annually approve the Assembly Bill 1058 Program funding allocations.

Recommendation

The Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective July 17, 2026:

1. Approve the recommended allocation for the Child Support Commissioner program for fiscal year 2026–27, as set forth in Attachment A. This allocation maintains the current workload-based methodology approved by the Judicial Council on January 16, 2019, and updated with new workload data every two years; and

2. Approve the recommended allocation for the Family Law Facilitator program for fiscal year 2026–27, as set forth in Attachment B. This allocation maintains the current population-based methodology approved by the Judicial Council on July 9, 2021, and updated with new population data every two years.
3. Authorize distribution of federal draw-down funding consistent with methodology previously adopted by the Council (January 2019) and courts’ surveyed requests; any unrequested amounts will be reallocated consistent with past practice.

This recommendation will be presented to the Judicial Branch Budget Committee on April 22, 2026, for approval before consideration by the Judicial Council.

Relevant Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council is required to allocate non-trial court funding to the Assembly Bill (AB) 1058 program annually and has done so since 1997.¹ A cooperative agreement between the California Department of Child Support Services (DCSS) and the council provides the funds for this program and requires the council to approve the funding allocation annually. Two-thirds of the funds are federal, and one-third comes from the state General Fund (non-trial court funding). Any funds left unspent at the end of the fiscal year revert to the state General Fund and cannot be used in subsequent years.

The AB 1058 Funding Allocation Joint Subcommittee was formed in 2015 to review the historical AB 1058 program funding methodology. On January 15, 2019, the council approved a new workload-based funding methodology for the AB 1058 Child Support Commissioner (CSC) program while maintaining the historical Family Law Facilitator (FLF) program funding methodology until fiscal year 2021–22, as recommended by the subcommittee.² On July 9, 2021, the council approved a new population-based methodology for the FLF program and maintained the workload-based methodology, with updated workload data for the CSC program and directed that each methodology be updated every two years with updated data.³ Additionally, the council directed the Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee to defer making a recommendation for funding a minimum service level for smaller courts and reviewing the implementation of the

¹ Assembly Bill 1058 added article 4 to chapter 2 of part 2 of division 9 of the Family Code, which at section 4252(b)(6) requires the Judicial Council to “[e]stablish procedures for the distribution of funding to the courts for child support commissioners, family law facilitators pursuant to [Family Code] Division 14 (commencing with Section 10000), and related allowable costs.”

Rep., Child Support: Updating Workload Data for the AB 1058 Child Support Commissioner Funding Methodology, Adopting a Family Law Facilitator Program Funding Methodology, and Adopting 2021–22 AB 1058 Program Funding Allocations (May 14, 2021), <https://jcc.legistar.com/View.ashx?M=F&ID=9508521&GUID=BC737E96-AFD8-4E22-A046-AE9E16A5C422>.

CSC workload-based methodology until fiscal year 2023–24.⁴ On July 21, 2023, the Judicial Council approved the current methodology for the CSC which allocates funding to the smallest courts and courts in a cooperative agreement to share services using their historical allocation as that methodology allowed the smallest courts to maintain program services as federally mandated without making substantial reductions to courts in other clusters.⁵

On September 25, 2020, the council approved a temporary budget reduction methodology to allocate a $7 million budget reduction to the AB 1058 CSC and FLF program’s fiscal year 2020–21 budget as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.⁶ On October 1, 2021, the council approved an allocation of $4.45 million in new base funding made available to the AB 1058 program in the 2021 Budget Act, effective July 1, 2021, for fiscal year 2021–22. Of the new funding, 75 percent was distributed to the CSC side of the program and prorated to courts with unmet need as determined by the CSC workload-based funding methodology. The remaining 25 percent of the new funding was distributed to the FLF side of the program, with the majority prorated to courts with unmet need and the remainder prorated to all courts as determined by the FLF population-based funding methodology.⁷

On July 18, 2025, the Judicial Council approved funding allocation for fiscal year 2025–26 with updated workload data for the CSC program and updated population data for the FLF program.

Analysis/Rationale

Pursuant to a two-year cooperative agreement between DCSS and the Judicial Council, base and federal drawdown funds are distributed to the AB 1058 program for fiscal year 2026–27. The base funding is distributed based on Judicial Council-approved methodologies for both sides of the program. For the federal drawdown funds, courts are given the option to contribute trial court funds to receive a two-thirds match in federal dollars. The allocation of federal drawdown funds is based on responses during the midyear reallocation process in which courts indicate whether they would like to change their federal drawdown allocation for the next fiscal year.

Funding for fiscal year 2026–27 for the CSC program is $35 million in base funding and $13 million in federal drawdown funding. Funding for fiscal year 2026–27 for the FLF program is $11.9 million in base funding and $4.4 million in federal drawdown funds. The total program base allocation is $46.9 million, and the total federal drawdown allocation is $17.5 million.

Based on the approved funding methodologies, courts will receive the same amount of base funding as they received for fiscal year 2025-26 and the same federal drawdown funding if they requested to receive the same funding amount. Any federal drawdown funding made available from courts requesting a reduced allocation are allocated based on methodology previously approved by the Judicial Council. See Attachments A and B for additional details.

Policy Implications

Approval of these recommendations allows for the continued funding of the CSC and FLF programs, supporting courts in meeting mandates under Family Code sections 4251 and 10002 to hire sufficient child support commissioners and family law facilitators, respectively, to provide AB 1058 services to the public. Approval of these recommendations also fulfills the requirements of the contract between the council and the California Department of Child Support Services.

Comments

The report was not circulated for comment and no comments were received in advance of the meeting.

Alternatives considered

The committee considered taking no action but rejected this option as inconsistent with Judicial Council goals because it would result in the reversion of unspent funds to the General Fund. Taking no action would also deprive courts of the option of using federal drawdown funds to cover two-thirds of some of the existing court contributions to the programs.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

The committee does not anticipate that these recommendations will result in additional costs to the branch. The reallocation of funds will increase available funds for some courts and decrease available funds to others, which may impact their ability to meet program objectives.
