If you wish to speak during the public comment portion of the meeting, please email your request to familyjuvenilecomm@jud.ca.gov by 5:00pm on March 13, 2026. Please note that comments about specific cases or judicial officers will not be accepted. The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee is not an adjudicatory body and cannot intervene in individual cases. If you have concerns about a case, please follow the appropriate legal procedures, such as motions for reconsideration, writs, or appeals. We ask that you refrain from discussing specific cases, parties, individuals, or court staff during the meeting.

Finally, all attendees are expected to follow these guidelines and maintain respect and order during the meeting. If you disrupt the meeting or fail to follow the rules, you may be muted or removed from the meeting. Thank you for your kind attention and cooperation.
