Remote Public Comment

The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee recently began accepting remote public comment at its open meetings in addition to written comments provided in advance. If you wish to speak during the public comment portion of the meeting, please email your request to familyjuvenilecomm@jud.ca.gov by 5:00pm on May 1, 2026. Please include your first and last name, the name of any organization you represent, the specific agenda item you wish to address, and a detailed description of your comment. Speakers will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis. Public comment will be heard at the beginning of the meeting. If you do not log in by 4:30pm, you may lose your opportunity to speak.

Each speaker will be allowed up to two minutes. Three or more speakers may pool their time for a maximum of five minutes. If there is not enough time to accommodate your request to speak, the substance of your comment will be shared with the committee in writing.

Please note that comments about specific cases or judicial officers will not be accepted. The Family and Juvenile Law Advisory Committee is not an adjudicatory body and cannot intervene in individual cases. If you have concerns about a case, please follow the appropriate legal procedures, such as motions for reconsideration, writs, or appeals. We ask that you refrain from discussing specific cases, parties, individuals, or court staff during the meeting.
