DISCUSSION AND ACTION ITEMS (ITEMS 1-10)

Item 1

Chair's Report

Presenter: Hon. Sheila F. Hanson, Chair

Update: Judge Hanson congratulated everyone on a job well done updating ITAC's 2019 Annual Agenda. The workplan was approved by the Judicial Council Technology Committee (JCTC) at their January 14, 2019 meeting. ITAC has a full year ahead with many important initiatives, 11 workstreams, and several subcommittee rule and policy efforts. Mr. Blalock emailed the approved annual agenda to members on January 17th. It is also posted on the ITAC website.

The updated Tactical Plan is currently being circulated for public comment, which closes in late March. This follows the branch comment period and their very constructive comments helped refine the draft plan. The draft plan, with all incorporated comments and feedback will be submitted to the Judicial Council for review and approval at their May meeting.

Item 2

Judicial Council Technology Committee Update (JCTC) (Report)

Update on activities and news coming from this internal oversight committee.

Presenter: Hon. Marsha Slough, Chair, JCTC

Update: Justice Slough provided JCTC updates since the last report to ITAC in December. The JCTC held an open meeting, and education session and Justice Slough provided updates on both committees' activities at the January Judicial Council meeting. At the January 14 meeting, Judge Hanson provided an update on the draft Tactical Plan for Technology for 2019 – 2020. She also presented the 2019 ITAC Annual Agenda, which after reviewing it was approved unanimously. Mark Dusman, Principal Manager in JCIT provided an update on the technology BCPs. Also, at the January Council meeting, the San Bernardino court presented on its Judicial Council Innovation Grant for the court's use of videoconferencing to facilitate child custody recommending counseling sessions. This is another example how technology helps courts do their business and improve access to justice. JCTC will hold its next meeting on February 11 by teleconference. Justice Slough thanked Judge Hanson and ITAC for their work and collaboration and service.

Item 3

Video Remote Interpreting Workstream (VRI) – Status and Final Report (Action Required)

Review and discuss the draft Judicial Council report on the VRI Pilot for the March 2019 council meeting, including recommended guidelines for minimum technology requirements. Decide the guidelines' readiness to recommend to the Judicial Council Technology Committee for acceptance and submission of the report to the Judicial Council.

Presenters: Hon. Samantha P. Jessner and Mr. David H. Yamasaki, VRI Workstream Executive Co-Sponsors
Mr. Douglas Denton, Supervising Analyst, Language Access Services;
Workstream Project Manager
Ms. Virginia Sanders-Hinds, Principal Manager, Information Technology

Action: Judge Jessner and Mr. Yamasaki presented the final VRI project outlining the history, identifying the needs of California, guidelines and requirements. There are over 200 languages spoken in the California courts. There is a limited supply of qualified court interpreters. VRI Pilot Project Goal – to verify whether VRI can reliably assist limited English proficient court users and assess how technology can address language access needs. In 2018, the pilot took place in Ventura, Merced, and Sacramento. There were two vendors per county: Paras & Associates and Connected Justice. The case types included: felony and traffic arraignments, as well as some civil matters. The San Diego State University Research Foundation was contracted as an independent evaluator and collected VRI pilot data. They reported on due process issues, participant satisfaction, use of certified and registered interpreters, and effectiveness of technologies. Their findings were positive and court staff, court users and interpreters all found the VRI to be a good experience. However, some interpreters felt this technology shouldn't be used in more complex proceedings.

Recommendations, not mandates will be presented to the Judicial Council Technology Committee and if approved to the Judicial Council at their May meeting. The recommendations are: adopt the revised VRI guidelines, which now include recommended minimum technology guidelines; approve creation of Leveraged Procurement Agreements (LPAs) with the two approved VRI pilot vendors; approve development of a VRI Program for the branch in 2019; and lastly to regularly report to the Judicial Council on VRI implementation progress.

Motion to approve acceptance of the report and to recommend submission to the Judicial Council Technology Committee.

Approved.

Item 4

(a) Branch Budget Update (Report)

Update on the status of the branch budget, along with any technology-related discussions with the Department of Finance and/or with Legislators.

Presenter: Mr. Zlatko Theodorovic, Director, Budget Services

Report: Mr. Theodorovic provided an update on the new governor's budget. The budget is a $144B general fund, $209B state budget, $15.2B reserve expected to grow to $19B in FY22-23. Fiscal resiliency is important and there is many one-time spending to reverse prior budget gimmicks. This will help realign budget in the right way. There were $300M in new general fund for the branch. There are some large one-time investments in pilot projects and non-IT related funding, such as facilities. Very pleased to see the 5 BCPs submitted 5 BCPs in the proposed budget. Governor Newsome is interested in modernizing the state and that includes the judicial branch. Had a good meeting with the Legislative Analyst Office in January going over and responding to their questions. Budget hearings start in March and April.

(b) FY 2019/2020 Technology Budget Change Proposal Update (BCP)

Overview and update regarding the Technology Budget Change Proposals (BCPs) status.

Presenter: Ms. Heather Pettit, Chief Information Officer

Report: Ms. Pettit reported on the technology BCPs submitted and the work expected going forward.

- Case Management System Replacement – proposal is for 10 courts to replace aging CMS under the new master service agreement currently being developed.
- Phoenix System Roadmap – sets the stage for new financial and HR system. Also includes funding for more courts to go on this system over the next several years.
- Digitizing Documents for Courts Phase 1 – minimum one case type to begin; onboard 5-7 courts based on a set criterion for selecting final pilot courts.
- Merged and Updated BCP: Data Analytics/BI, Identity Management (limited scope), Futures Commission Directives for the Expansion of Technology in the Courts. Since they all are proof of concepts/phase 1 it made sense to combine. Once methodology is proven to work, then additional funding can be requested for deployment. They will remain separate workstreams but allows 2 years to test.

(c) FY 2020/2021 Technology Initial Funding Requests (Report)

Overview and update regarding the Technology Initial Funding Requests for fiscal year 2020/2021.

Presenter: Mr. Mark Dusman, Principal Manager, Information Technology

Report: Initial Funding Requests (IFR) for FY20/21 are due to Judicial Council Technology Committee in February for approval and submission to Judicial Branch Budget Committee (JBBC) on March 1. Draft full BCP May – June and after approval of prioritized BCP Concepts by the Judicial Council the BCPs are submitted to the Budget Services for review and reinternment and they are finally submitted to the Department of Finance.

Highest ranked proposed topics include: Operationalize Court Innovations is the only new project; Digitizing Records, phase 2 builds on phase 1; Disaster Recovery (initial funding); Modernization of Judicial Council Forms; Digital Evidence; and the Pilot for Next-Generation Hosting Concept at 1+ Court.

Item 5*Digital Evidence Phase 1 Workstream – Status and Final Results (Action Required)

Review and discuss the findings and recommendations from the workstream's Phase 1 activities. Decide readiness to recommend to the Judicial Council Technology Committee for acceptance; and initiate Phase 2 of the workstream.

Presenters: Hon. Kimberly Menninger, Workstream Sponsor
Ms. Kathy Fink, Manager, Information Technology

Action: Judge Menninger gave a brief look at the project goals. The workstream defined digital evidence and their research findings to be include as digital evidence. They also reviewed the rules and statutes and they think there may need to be some local rule and code changes in the future. They included their list of recommendations for Phase 2. They would like to investigate and recommend cost effective technology for presenting digital evidence both inside and outside the courtroom. Also, solutions for managing digital evidence electronically. The workstream received good advice from the private sector. Suggestions included: start small and deploy a component-based architecture, prepare for costs, develop standards, classify levels of security, investigate forward technologies (search services or AI/recognition), and consider staff needs.

Next steps for Phase 2 are recommendations for operational best practices for managing digital evidence and where it differs from physical evidence; technology support for viewing, transmission, acceptance, storage, and protection of digital evidence.

Perhaps a pilot is the best way to start, maybe using body cameras as a start.

Motion to Approve the findings and next steps of the workstream for submission to the Judicial Council Technology Committee.

Approved

Item 6

Trial Court Rules and Statutes Revisions: Proposed Amendments to Penal Code Section 1203.01 (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend circulating proposed amendments to Penal Code section 1203.01 for public comment. The proposed amendments will provide an alternative to mailing certain statements and reports.

Presenters: Hon. Peter J. Siggins, Chair, Rules & Policy Subcommittee
Ms. Andrea Jaramillo, Attorney II, Information Technology

Action: Presiding Justice Siggins explained that this amendment would allow documents to be sent electronically that now must be sent post judgement by mail. Rules & Policy subcommittee have discussed the issue that some incarcerated would have to request by mail. There are no form proposals changes accompanying this change.

Motion to approve the recommendation to circulate the proposed amendments to Penal Code Section 1203.01 for public comment.

Approved.

Item 7

Trial Court Rules and Statutes Revisions: Proposed Amendments to the Code of Civil Procedure Section 1010.6 (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend circulating proposed amendments to the Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6 for public comment. The proposed amendments will allow courts to recover actual costs of permissive electronic filing and mandatory electronic filing by court order, just as they can with mandatory electronic filing by local rule and clarify a provision for signatures made not under penalty of perjury to account for signatures of non-filers.

Presenters: Hon. Peter J. Siggins, Chair, Rules & Policy Subcommittee
Ms. Andrea Jaramillo, Attorney II, Information Technology

Action: Presiding Justice Siggins informs that there is a discrepancy between recovery of actual costs of permissive electronic filing. Difference currently are if permitted, required by local rule or ordered by court, this rule change will clarify the cost recovery confusion. This amendment also addresses clarifying a provision to allow electronic signatures on documents not signed under penalty of perjury.

Motion to approve the recommendation to circulate the proposed amendments to the Code of Civil Procedure Section 1010.6 for public comment.

Approved.

Item 8

Trial Court Rules and Statutes Revisions: Proposed Amendments to the Electronic Filing and Service Rules (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend circulating proposed amendments to the electronic filing and services rules for public comment. The proposed amendments to rule 2.251 will clarify how notice of electronic service is to be given and provide standardized language for consent. The proposed amendments to rule 2.257 will revise language on signatures of opposing parties and make minor revisions consistent with Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6.

Presenters: Hon. Peter J. Siggins, Chair, Rules & Policy Subcommittee
Ms. Andrea Jaramillo, Attorney II, Information Technology

Action: Presiding Justice Siggins advises this amendment to rule 2.251 tries to capture ways that parties can manifest to the court they have consented to electronic service. The two ways this can be done are: 1. By filing the consent to electronic service form; 2. To agree to terms of service with an electronic service provider.

Rule 2.257 requirements for electronic signature of a non-filer suggested change is "linked to data in such a manner that if the data are changed, the electronic signature may be declared invalid by the court".

Motion to approve the recommendation to circulate the proposed amendments to the electronic filing and service rules for public comment.

Approved.

Item 9

Trial Court Rules and Statutes Revisions: Proposed Amendments to the Rules on Remote Access to Electronic Records (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend circulating proposed amendments to the rules on remote access to electronic records for public comment. The proposed amendments to rule 2.540 will add more clarity and additional local government entities.

Presenters: Hon. Peter J. Siggins, Chair, Rules & Policy Subcommittee
Ms. Andrea Jaramillo, Attorney II, Information Technology

Action: Presiding Justice Siggins one amendment adds local counties agencies public that were missed in the previous update. The second amends broadens the description to perform their "legal" duties.

Motion to approve the recommendation to circulate the proposed amendments to the rules on remote access to electronic records for public comment.

Approved.

Public Comment

The advisory body did not receive any public comments for this meeting.

Item 1

Chair's Opening Remarks

Presenter: Hon. Sheila F. Hanson, Chair

Update: Judge Hanson welcomed everyone to today's special ITAC meeting at the request of the Joint Appellate Technology Subcommittee to consider three proposals. The first and third items are rules proposals that the subcommittee is requesting for a pilot program and for ITAC to recommend to the Judicial Council.

Item 2

Appellate Procedure: Service Copy of a Petition for Review (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend circulation of a proposed rule amendment to eliminate the need for a separate service copy of a petition for review (joint proposal with the Appellate Advisory Committee).

Presenters: Hon. Louis Mauro, Chair, Joint Appellate Technology Subcommittee
Ms. Kristi Morioka, Attorney II, Legal Services

Action: The Court of Appeals do not need a copy if filed electronically, only if a paper filing. This amendment would clarify and eliminate the need for a separate service copy.

Motion to recommend the circulation of the proposed rule amendment– eliminating the need for a separate service copy of a petition–for public comment.

Approved.

Item 3

E-filing for incarcerated individuals (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend to the Judicial Council a pilot program with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) for e-filing between one prison and the Court of Appeal, Third Appellate District (joint proposal with the Appellate Advisory Committee)

Presenter: Hon. Louis Mauro, Chair, Joint Appellate Technology Subcommittee

Action: Federal courts are already doing limited e-filing within prisons. The librarian will scan and email to court. JATS would like to do a pilot program with one or more prisons to use same method to file appellate civil cases. Talking with Third Appellate District working with one or more Sacramento prisons on civil cases using email. There will be an opt out if there were a burden on the prison. Current discussion is to email and not e-filing due to the requirement to register to use e-filing. CCDR understands the documents not in preferred by courts. The pilot length still being discussed but expected at least a year. There aren't a lot of prisons in the Sacramento area, so may need to extend area to include more prisons and could also extend the pilot duration. Limited to civil appeals, doesn't include habeas or writs cases.

Since this is not true e-filing, perhaps better to say e-delivery. Since it's emailed to court clerk and the clerk then files and an electronic response to CDCR to alert inmate. Don't want to lose the RUPRO cycle and getting approval to begin

Motion to recommend to the Judicial Council to begin a pilot program with the Third District Court of Appeals to engage a pilot program with one or more prisons for e-delivery of appeals in civil cases.

Approved

Item 4*Rules Modernization: Uniform Formatting Rules for Electronic Documents (Action Required)

Consider whether to recommend circulation of proposed rule amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents (joint proposal with the Appellate Advisory Committee)

Presenters: Hon. Louis Mauro, Chair, Joint Appellate Technology Subcommittee
Ms. Kristi Morioka, Attorney II, Legal Services

Action: Justice Mauro explained the changes to be made to the below rules.

Rule 8.40. a, b and c (3) – references in subdivision A reference new rule 8.74 and uniform rules and combines into B of paper documents. In C (3) refers to covers of electronic documents.

Motion to recommend circulation of the proposed amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents.

Approved.

Rule 8.44 the only change to C, major change is taking out first sentence and portion of last sentence. First sentence pertains to local rules and last sentence was left in that pertains to hardship. The middle sentence indicates when filing paper, the court may require electronic filing.

Motion to recommend circulation of the proposed amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents.

Approved.

Rule 8.71 took out local rules section, the Supreme Court maintains a local rule so left in for the Supreme Court only.

Motion to recommend circulation of the proposed amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents.

Approved.

Rule 8.72 will be combined with rule 8.74 pertaining to responsibilities of electric filer.

Motion to recommend circulation of the proposed amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents.

Approved.

Rule 8.74 A took current requirements in Appellate & Supreme court local rules and put together the best practices together A1 refers to tech searchable formats

At Appellate Advisory Committee had concern with difficulty with pagination and there may be comments and pushback. Difficult to paginate with the table of authority at the beginning of document. One suggestion to put tables at end. Another suggestion is to send out as is and review feedback. Electronic media file format is based on CMS that can be received. Also, there's a suggested change in font from Times New Roman to Century School Book. Suggestion made to remove the tabs since bookmarks, tabs are no longer used.

Motion to recommend circulation of the proposed amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents along with comments to remove “tab” from rule 8.74.

Approved.

Rule 8.204 only change is to reference 8.74.

Motion to recommend circulation of the proposed amendments to establish uniform formatting rules for electronic documents.

Approved.

Rule 8.252 this rule refers to judicial notice. Two suggested changes are to regarding a motion, a copy of the matter or and explanation must be attached. Also, the motion with attachments must comply with Rule 8.74 if filed in electronic form.

2019-2020 Tactical Plan (Action Required)

Review and consider whether to recommend to the Judicial Council Technology Committee adoption of the 2019-2020 Tactical Plan for Technology.

Presenters: Hon. Sheila Hanson, Chair

Action: Judge Hanson provided an update on the 2019 – 2020 Tactical Plan for Technology. ITAC is asked to consider adoption of the draft plan in their meeting materials. As a reminder, the Tactical Plan for Technology defines the overall initiatives that ITAC and the branch will complete to achieve the goals set for by the Strategic Plan for Technology. The plan was submitted for both branch and public comment. The summarized comments are in a chart on page 42 of the materials. Judge Hanson acknowledged the efforts made by workstream members and staff in creating this very important document. She also thanked judicial officers, executives, and staff across the branch who provided their subject matter knowledge. Lastly, she thanked the stakeholders who reviewed and provided valuable feedback.

Motion to recommend to the Judicial Council Technology Committee adoption of the 2019 – 2020 Tactical Plan.

Budget Services Liaison: Nadia Butler

Date Prepared: 2/28/2019

Document Tracking Number: IFR-20-10

A. Working Title: Electronic (Intelligent) Judicial Council Forms Solution

B. Description of Funding Request:

The Judicial Council requests 4.0 positions and approximately $1.535 million General Fund in 2020-21 and $635,000 ongoing to support the implementation and deployment of a branch-wide forms solution based on the recommendations of the Information Technology Advisory Committee's Intelligent Forms Workstream. The one-time funding is to fund consultant services and to procure a platform and software for the modernization and transformation of Judicial Council forms.

Court forms are the most frequent point of contact that the public has with the Judicial Council of California, the browse forms page on the Judicial Council website was accessed 4.8 million times in 2018. In 2016, 92% of the downloads from the Judicial Council website were forms. In 2018, that represented 5.98 million forms.

The current technology solution for managing Judicial Council forms is anticipated to be at the end of life within next two years. The replacement product is a significantly more complex and cumbersome platform that requires specialized technical expertise and training to use. To move forward with the modernization of Judicial Council forms it is essential to have a platform in place for the development of a solution. The Intelligent Forms initiative will enable the Judicial Council Technology Office to establish a platform for the development, deployment, and maintenance of a branch-wide Intelligent Forms solution based on the recommendations of the Intelligent Forms Workstream.

C. Estimated Costs:     One Time $1.535 million     Ongoing $635,031.00

		FY20/21
		One time	Ongoing
Full Time Staff Costs
	1 Attorney		$190,016
	1 Technology Architect		$171,007
	1 Sr. Technology Analyst		$137,004
	1 Sr. Business Systems Analyst		$137,004
Operational and Deployment Costs
	Forms platform and software; APIs, professional services; Adaptive Forms Builder; Certification and e-Signature; Versioning.	$1,535,031 (Est.)

D. Relevance to the Judicial Branch Budget and Other Funding Requests:

The Strategic Plan for California's Judicial Branch and the Strategic Plan for Technology 2019-2022 both list access to justice as Goal 1. Providing self-represented litigants access to forms that can be used remotely and at no charge means access to justice, enabling users to file court documents and seek legal remedies. Family law, probate, protective orders, name changes, and other legal processes are largely form-driven. Court forms are critical for improving service and access to self-represented litigants. The Judicial Council, as the official publisher of Judicial Council Forms, is the entity properly charged with the responsibility for delivering the technical infrastructure.

Remote access to reliable, legally accurate, and accessible forms is foundational to access to justice. It further enhances the move towards a “digital court,” and has the potential to significantly increase efficiency as data migrates from the face of a paper form that must be manually input to seamless integration through e-filing and remote interaction.

E. Required Review/Approvals:

Judicial Council Technology Committee and Information Technology Advisory Committee have reviewed and approved this request. No additional advisory body approvals required.

F. Proposed Lead Advisory Committee:

Budget Services proposes that Judicial Council Technology Committee take the lead advisory role as this committee oversees the council's policies concerning technology and is responsible in partnership with the courts for coordinating with the Administrative Director and all internal committees, advisory committees, commissions, working groups, task forces, justice partners and stakeholders on technological issues relating to the branch and the courts.

A. Working Title: Productizing California Court Innovation Grants

B. Description of Funding Request:

The Judicial Council requests approximately $4.88 million General Fund in 2020-21 and $1.8 million ongoing to further develop and deploy a branchwide strategy for productizing California Court Innovations Grants. The courts in partnership with the Judicial Council Information Technology office began an initiative in 2018, called Courtstack to address the need to take the single court solutions that were funded by the Innovations Grants and deploy them to other jurisdictions/courts. The CourtStack initiative provides a digital court platform and “ecosystem” to facilitate the transferable framework for the applications. The scope of this request consists of the development of foundational software services, applications, as well as the support and deployment of those applications throughout the branch so all courts may have the benefit of the innovations.

This initiative will extend the solutions to all courts with a technology platform. This will provide a standard implementation framework and solve many of the technical challenges seen while trying to deploy at different entities.

The courts have taken on the initial effort to create the concept design and have made progress where it coincides with existing innovation grants and local court priorities. The branch has engaged in architecture and standards work. However, to achieve the branch-wide mission, vision, and goals, additional funding is needed.

C. Estimated Costs:       One Time      $3,115,000       Ongoing      $1,765,000

Proposed funding is organized around three main areas (Foundational Services, Application Productization, Branch Support/Deployment).

D. Relevance to the Judicial Branch Budget and Other Funding Requests:

Two years ago, Innovation Grants were awarded throughout the judicial branch. These grants were one-time funded through the state budget to encourage judicial branch innovations. These grants helped incubate a number of technical concepts and solutions that were in alignment with branch strategic technology goals. These solutions are excellent and very useful for the courts that implemented them. Unfortunately, many have been difficult to deploy to other courts. In order to deploy these solutions beyond the proof of concept, a software development team, a significant amount of time, and additional financial resources is needed.

This initiative is in alignment with Branch strategic goals I, III, IV, and VI as it provides an easy to use branch-wide product suite that expands the digital court and will allow the public to access uniform court services throughout the state, where as today many courts have differing public services. The CourtStack vision of a robust, secure, reusable set of foundational services that serve as a core for future solutions is in direct alignment with the guiding principal of reliability and the goal of advancing IT security and infrastructure.

E. Required Review/Approvals:

Judicial Council Technology Committee has reviewed and approved this request. Information Technology Advisory Committee and Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee review and approvals required.

F. Proposed Lead Advisory Committee:

Budget Services proposes that Judicial Council Technology Committee take the lead advisory role as this committee oversees the council's policies concerning technology and is responsible in partnership with the courts for coordinating with the Administrative Director and all internal committees, advisory committees, commissions, working groups, task forces, justice partners and stakeholders on technological issues relating to the branch and the courts.

A. Working Title: Disaster Recovery Consulting Services Solutions - Pilot

B. Description of Funding Request:

The Judicial Council requests 2.0 positions and $1.429 million General Fund in 2020-21 and $329,000 ongoing to establish a Disaster Recovery (DR) program that provides support and expertise to courts on disaster recovery strategies and solutions. The program will include DR strategies based on court needs and requirements and will evaluate both cloud-based and on-premise DR services, as well as expertise in designing and implementing DR plans.

The positions within the Judicial Council Information Technology Office are required to:

- Manage the vendor Master Service Agreements (MSAs) and contracts;
- Provide guidance to court during their DR discovery process;
- Make recommendations and provide assistance to courts on their DR strategy;
- Create a roadmap for all courts to utilize as a standard for executing DR plans.

This program allows the branch to begin the process of operationalizing concepts established by the Information Technology Advisory Committee's Disaster Recovery Workstream as it works to modernize the branch's disaster recovery capabilities. No on-going funding would be provided to the courts (i.e., if a court wished to continue the pilot, it must fund on-going costs.)

C. Estimated Costs:

One Time

$1.1 million

Ongoing

$329,000.00

One-Time

- Development and issuance of one or more solicitations for both cloud-based and on-premise disaster recovery services and related plan development to facilitate failover to and recovery from these services.
- Execution and publication of MSAs to provide both cloud-based and on-premise disaster recovery services to judicial branch entities.
- Use of disaster recovery consulting services MSAs put in place by the Phase II disaster recovery workstream by two or more courts to establish court-specific disaster recovery solutions.
- Establishment of two or more pilot disaster recovery service engagements that serve to implement the solutions established by disaster recovery consulting service providers, including the development and enactment of supporting disaster recovery plans.

Ongoing:

- Establishment of 2.0 positions within the Judicial Council to provide guidance and assistance to the courts on the subject of disaster recovery

D. Relevance to the Judicial Branch Budget and Other Funding Requests:

This funding request is in direct support of the Strategic Plan for Technology 2019-2022, specifically Goal 3: Advance IT Security and Infrastructure’s Objective 3.3 that states “Ensure that critical systems, infrastructure hardware, and data can be recovered in a timely manner after a disaster.” It will improve courts’ ability to prepare for and recover their IT systems from catastrophic events that would otherwise result in loss of data and/or the ability to serve the public. Additionally, it will help facilitate compliance with the Judicial Branch information security framework, which specifies that effective controls be in place for contingency planning.

E. Required Review/Approvals:

Judicial Council Technology Committee and Information Technology Advisory Committee have reviewed and approved this request. Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee approval required.

F. Proposed Lead Advisory Committee:

Budget Services proposes the Judicial Council Technology Committee take the lead advisory role as this committee oversees the council’s policies concerning technology and is responsible in partnership with the courts for coordinating with the Administrative Director and all internal committees, advisory committees, commissions, working groups, task forces, justice partners and stakeholders on technological issues relating to the branch and the courts.

A. Working Title: Digitizing Documents Phases 2 and 3

B. Description of Funding Request:

The Judicial Council requests approximately $17.8 million General Fund in 2020-21 to expand the digitizing of court records. This extends and supports the Phase 1 of the BCP that is proposed in the 2019-20 Governor's Budget and is pending final legislative approval.

31-courts responded to the needs survey, and 29 wanted to participate in a pilot. Of the 29 wanting to participate in a pilot, 22 were committed, willing to re-engineer their business processes, provide staffing for the pilot and provide documentation of their experiences so that future implementations would go more smoothly. Each court measured or provided estimates for the quantity of paper and filmed files, for both active and archived cases. In total, the 29 courts reported more than 300,000 linear feet of active case paper files (more than 56 miles). The response to the survey identifies an opportunity for substantial reductions in physical storage, through the digitizing of paper.

C. Estimated Costs:       One Time      $17,810,000       Ongoing      $

Courts interested in participating in the program assisted with the estimated costs, implementation strategy, and inventory of paper records; digitizing vendors provided service and equipment estimates. Four-year estimated costs for Phases 2 - 3 are detailed below. Initial budget allocation for FY 2019-2020, included Phase 1 money for equipment, digitizing services, and 1.0 position to manage the project.

D. Relevance to the Judicial Branch Budget and Other Funding Requests:

The 2019-20 Governor's Budget proposes the funding of $5.6 million for the first phase of digitization of mandatory paper court records was for equipment and consulting services for 5 to 7 courts. This budget change proposal is to fund the next two phases of the paper digitization. The funding will cover the conversion of mandated paper case files in at least one case type for approximately 15 courts, including Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and Trial Courts. The tentative implementation strategy is:

Phases	Estimated Linear	Types of Courts
 Phase 1 (BCP FY 19-20)	27,151	5 trial courts/1 court of appeal
Phase 2 (FY 20-21)	28,535	5 trial courts 1/3 of Multiple phase implementation)
Phase 3 (FY 21-22)	50,772	7 trial court/ 1 court of appeal 1/3 of 2 courts multi- phase implementation
106,458 Estimated Total Linear Feet of Documents

** Included in 2019-20 Governor's proposed budget

This request is in alignment with the Branch strategic goals I, II, III, IV, and VI as it enables faster and easier access to case information for the public, allows greater transparency to the public at lower cost to the courts, reduces the requirement that customers stand in line at the courthouse and the workload on court staff, as well as allowing for access to relevant case information at the convenience of the authorized parties.

Digitizing paper and film files is a foundational requirement that allows the judicial branch to effectively utilize a modern case management system and to realize significant savings by providing electronic service delivery over face-to-face transactions.

E. Required Review/Approvals:

Judicial Council Technology Committee and Information Technology Advisory Committee have reviewed and approved this request. Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee approval required.

A. Working Title: Next Generation Data Hosting Consulting Services

B. Description of Funding Request:

The Judicial Council requests 1.0 position and approximately $1.296 million General Fund 2020-21 and $843,000 over 5 years to implement the concepts outlined in the Next Generation Hosting Framework (NGH) at one or, if funding is available, potentially more courts. The initial funding would be used to operationalize branch-level recommendations as decided by the Information Technology Advisory Committee (ITAC) by working with a court, doing a full IT environment assessment, developing IT hosting scenarios, testing, operational methodologies, support and maintenance options that will be published in an IT Hosting Playbook. The Playbook will be the baseline for hosting options and will be the mechanism to evaluate hosting best practices, methods, procedures and other technologies available for data center hosting services including server infrastructure, network and software that supports mission critical court applications. This could be considered a pilot, so no additional funds would be provided to the court if they court wished to continue with the hosting options that were implemented. Any on-going funds after the pilot would be borne by the court.

The NGH workstream recommendations present guidelines to assist courts in making decisions on hosting court technology systems using modern, scalable, and flexible models. The models range from on-premise local hosting solutions, regional court data centers, cloud computing solutions via third party service providers, or hybrid models of the above. The funding would allow courts to test framework guidelines, to use and refine common service level definitions and expectations, and to take advantage of new hosting technologies available to the branch. Courts may leverage Master Service Agreements (MSAs) negotiated with providers for hosting support for critical applications including: court case management systems, public service portals, jury systems, DMV, payroll, financial, email systems and web services. This request will enable the courts to utilize solutions and leverage the expertise of the workstream's recommendations to better utilize modern, robust, flexible, and cost-effective hosting solutions that are suitable for each court's technology environment and needs.

C. Estimated Costs:

One Time

Up to $1,295,862

Ongoing

$842,201
(5-year total)

At this time the cost to pilot Next Generation Hosting Solutions is unknown, but as the assessment moves forward we will be better able to gauge the resources needed for this effort. At this point in time, funding for the pilot is expected to include:

- Data center consulting services contract to assist the pilot courts
- 1.0 position for JCC: 1.0 Senior Business Systems Analyst to work with pilot courts to provide hosting guidance based on a defined methodology and playbook, to maintain and refine the framework, and to coordinate procurement of services including: developing Requests for Proposals (RFPs), selecting vendors, and executing contracts.

- No additional on-going funding is requested for pilot courts. Courts wishing to continue their pilot implementation would fund any on-going costs.
- The cost estimates are for pilot services for one medium sized court for hardware, software, and services and are based on current California Court Technology Center (CCTC) pricing models.

D. Relevance to the Judicial Branch Budget and Other Funding Requests:

While next generation hosting is expressly called out under the Strategic Plan for Technology 2019 - 2022 in Goal 3, Optimize Infrastructure, it also has a direct impact on the branch's ability to accomplish two more of its strategic technology goals: Promote the Digital court and Optimize Branch Resources. A modern, flexible, scalable, and cost-effective hosting foundation is critical to providing services that extend and enhance public access to the courts, enable data-sharing among the courts, and promote collaboration across the judicial branch. The recommendations are based upon the Court Technology Strategic and Tactical Plan and the best likelihood for achieving the defined goals and objectives. The workstream also partnered with ITAC's Disaster Recovery Workstream to ensure report findings were in alignment with related initiatives in the Tactical Plan.

E. Required Review/Approvals:

Judicial Council Technology Committee and Information Technology Advisory Committee have reviewed and approved this request Trial Court Budget Advisory Committee review and approval required.

F. Proposed Lead Advisory Committee:

1. Introduction

1.1 Background

Privacy is a fundamental right guaranteed by the California Constitution. (Cal. Const., art. I, § 1; see Westbrook v. County of Los Angeles (1994) 27 Cal.App.4th 157, 164–166.) To protect people’s privacy, numerous laws have been enacted that provide for the confidentiality of various kinds of personal information. In adjudicating cases, courts have a major role in enforcing these laws and protecting the privacy rights of citizens. Courts also are involved in protecting people’s privacy rights through their own day-to-day operations, including preserving the integrity of confidential and sealed records, ensuring that sensitive data is secure, and protecting private personal information.

On the other hand, access to information concerning the conduct of the public’s business is also a fundamental right of every citizen. (Cal. Const., art. I, § 3(b); see NBC Subsidiary (KNBC-TV) v. Superior Court of Los Angeles County (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1178, 1217–1218 (substantive courtroom proceedings in ordinary civil cases are “presumptively open”).) Courts are obligated to conduct their business in an open and transparent manner. (See also Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500.) Similarly, court records are presumed to be open and must be made accessible to the public unless made confidential or sealed. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(c).)<sup>1</sup> Openness and accessibility are important to preserve trust and confidence in the judicial system, and they are necessary to carry on the regular, ongoing business of the courts.<sup>2</sup>

1.2 Purpose of the Privacy Resource Guide

The purpose of this resource guide is to assist the trial and appellate courts—and more generally the judicial branch—to protect the privacy interests of persons involved with the California court system while providing the public with reasonable access to the courts and the records to which they are entitled.

The resource guide provides assistance in two ways. First, it provides information about the legal requirements that guide the courts’ activities and operations relating to protecting the privacy of persons involved with the court system. Second, the guide provides practical advice for courts on the best practices for carrying out their obligations to protect people’s privacy.

The creation of the resource guide at this time is important because of the major transition underway that is transforming the courts from a paper-based physical system to one that relies

<sup>2</sup> In recognition of the special role that courts play in conducting the people’s business, the Legislature has in some instances exempted the courts from laws enacted to protect personal privacy. (See, e.g., Civ. Code, § 1798.3(b)(1) [excluding from the definition of “agency” covered by the Information Privacy Act of 1977 “[a]ny agency established under Article VI of the California Constitution”—that is, the courts].)

increasingly on electronic records and other forms of technology to conduct business. With this change, much information in the courts that was practically obscure can now be made available remotely in an easily searchable format. The transition requires careful analysis and the deliberate institution of new practices to ensure that proper privacy protections are now in place.

1.3 Key Definitions

As used in this resource guide, unless the context or subject matter requires otherwise:

1. “Court record” means any document, paper, or exhibit filed by the parties to an action or proceeding; any order or judgment of the court; and any item listed in Government Code section 68151, excluding any reporter’s transcript for which the reporter is entitled to receive a fee for any copy. The term does not include the personal notes or preliminary memoranda of judges or other judicial branch personnel. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.502.)
2. A “document” may be in paper or electronic form.
3. “Electronic record” means a court record that requires the use of an electronic device to access. The term includes both a document that has been filed electronically and an electronic copy or version of a record that was filed in paper form. (See, e.g., Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.82(2).) Electronic records may be in the form of data.
4. “Adjudicative record” means any writing prepared for or filed or used in a court proceeding, the judicial deliberation process, or the assignment or reassignment of cases and of justices, judges (including temporary and assigned judges), and subordinate judicial officers, or of counsel appointed or employed by the court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(c)(1).)
5. “Confidential record” is a record that based on statute, rule, or case law is not open to inspection by the public. Confidential records are sometimes also not available to certain parties or persons.
6. “Judicial administrative record” means any writing containing information relating to the conduct of the people’s business that is prepared, owned, used, or retained by a judicial branch entity regardless of the writing’s physical form or characteristics, except an adjudicative record. The term “judicial administrative record” does not include records of a personal nature that are not used in or do not relate to the people’s business, such as personal notes, memoranda, electronic mail, calendar entries, and records of Internet use. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(c)(2).)
7. “Protected personal information” includes any information that can be used to identify or describe an individual such as his or her name, social security number, physical description, biometric records, home address, home telephone number, financial information, and medical or employment history.

8. A “redacted version” is a version of a record from which all portions that disclose materials contained in a sealed, conditionally sealed, or confidential record have been removed. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.45(b)(6).)
9. “Rule” means a rule of the California Rules of Court.
10. An “unredacted version” is a version of a record or a portion of a record that discloses materials contained in a sealed, conditionally sealed, or confidential record. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.45(b)(7).)
11. “Sealed record” means a record that by court order is not open to inspection by the public. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(b)(2).)
12. “Writing” means any handwriting, typewriting, printing, photographing, photocopying, electronic mail, text messaging, fax, and every other means of recording on any tangible thing any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, symbols, or combinations, regardless of the manner in which the record has been stored. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(c)(6); Evid. Code, § 250.)

2. Privacy in Court Records

2.1 Confidential and Sealed Records in the Trial Courts

Protection of privacy is an important major reason for making court records confidential or for sealing them. By making a document confidential or sealing it, the public and sometimes others are prevented by law from obtaining access to sensitive personal information or other information that might adversely affect a person’s privacy. By respecting and enforcing the confidentiality or sealing, courts assist in protecting and preserving persons’ privacy. However, there may be other reasons for making a document confidential or for sealing it besides protecting privacy. For example, confidentiality or sealing may be used to ensure the safety of witnesses, to protect trade secrets, or to preserve legally recognized privileges. This section focuses on records that are confidential or sealed in the trial courts principally or at least in part for reasons of protecting privacy interests.

Subsection 2.1.1 provides a nonexhaustive list of types of cases and proceedings and of specific records<sup>3</sup> that are exempt from the presumption of public disclosure by statute, regulation, court rule, or case law. Some records by law are strictly confidential and others may be confidential in particular circumstances. In addition to the records described in this section, there are many other confidential records discussed under more specific headings later in this resource guide and described in Appendix 1.

Sealed records in the trial courts are discussed in subsection 2.1.2.

2.1.1 Confidential Records

Records of adoption proceedings

Documents related to an adoption proceeding are not open to the public. Only the parties, their attorneys, and the Department of Social Services may review the records. The judge can authorize review by a requestor only in “exceptional circumstances and for good cause approaching the necessitous.” (Fam. Code, § 9200\(a\).) Any party to the proceeding can petition the court to have redacted from the records, before copy or inspection by the public, the name of the birth parents and information tending to identify the birth parents. (Fam. Code, § 9200\(b\).)

Records of juvenile proceedings

Welfare and Institutions Code section 827 and California Rules of Court, rule 5.552, establish broad restrictions on the disclosure of juvenile court records. These laws reflect a general policy that, with certain limited exceptions, juvenile court records should remain confidential. (In re Keisha T. (1995) 38 Cal.App.4th 220, 225.) Specifically, section 827\(a\)\(1\)\(P\) permits juvenile court records to be inspected only by certain specified persons and “any other person who may be designated by court order of the judge of the juvenile court upon filing a petition.”

There is also an exception to this rule of confidentiality for certain records in cases brought under Welfare and Institutions Code section 602, in which the minor is charged with one or more specified violent offenses. (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 676.) In such cases, the charging petition, the minutes, and the jurisdictional and dispositional orders are available for public inspection (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 676\(d\)), unless the juvenile court judge enters an order prohibiting disclosure (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 676\(e\)). Thus, except for records enumerated in Welfare and Institutions Code section 676, if a record is part of a juvenile court file, it should be kept confidential and disclosed only as permitted under Welfare and Institutions Code section 827 and California Rules of Court, rule 5.552. Juvenile court records may also be subject to sealing orders under Welfare and Institutions Code sections 389, 781, and 786 (see § 2.1.2, “Sealed Records”).

Juvenile court records should remain confidential regardless of a juvenile’s immigration status. (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 831\(a\).) Juvenile information may not be disclosed or disseminated to federal officials absent a court order upon filing a petition under Welfare and Institutions Code section 827\(a\). (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 831\(b\)–\(c\).) Juvenile information may not be attached to any documents given to or provided by federal officials absent prior approval of the presiding judge of the juvenile court under Welfare and Institutions Code section 827\(a\)\(4\). (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 831\(d\).) “Juvenile information” includes the “juvenile case file” as defined in Welfare and Institutions Code section 827\(e\), as well as information regarding the juvenile such as the juvenile's name, date or place of birth, and immigration status. (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 831\(e\).)

Dismissed petitions. The court must order sealed all records related to any petition dismissed under Welfare and Institutions Code section 786 that are in the custody of the juvenile court, law enforcement agencies, the probation department, and the Department of Justice. The procedures for sealing these records are stated in Welfare and Institutions Code section 786 and rule 5.840 of the California Rules of Court.

Special immigrant juvenile findings

In any judicial proceedings in response to a request that the superior court make the findings necessary to support a petition for classification as a special immigrant juvenile, information regarding the child's immigration status that is not otherwise protected by the state confidentiality laws must remain confidential and must be available for inspection only by the court, the child who is the subject of the proceeding, the parties, the attorneys for the parties, the child's counsel, and the child's guardian. (Code Civ. Proc., § 155\(c\).)

In any judicial proceedings in response to a request that the superior court make the findings necessary to support a petition for classification as a special immigrant juvenile, records of the proceedings that are not otherwise protected by state confidentiality laws may be sealed using the procedure in California Rules of Court, rules 2.550 and 2.551. (Code Civ. Proc., § 155\(d\).)

Confidentiality of records in civil cases

Unlawful detainer proceedings. Court files and records in unlawful detainer proceedings are not publicly available except for access to limited civil case records and including the court file, index, and register of actions only to persons specified by statute under Code of Civil Procedure section 1161.2(a)(1)(A)–(D). (Code Civ. Proc., § 1161.2.) In addition, access to limited civil records in unlawful detainer proceedings shall be allowed:

- To a person by order of court if judgment is entered for the plaintiff after trial more than 60 days since filing of the complaint. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1161.2\(a\)\(1\)\(F\).)
- Except in cases involving residential property based on section 1161a as indicated in the caption of the complaint, to any other person 60 days after the complaint has been filed if the plaintiff prevails in the action within 60 days of filing the complaint, in which case the clerk shall allow access to any court records in the action. If a default or default judgment is set aside more than 60 days after the complaint was filed, section 1161.2 shall apply as if the complaint had been filed on the date the default or default judgment is set aside. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1161.2\(a\)\(1\)\(F\).)

- In the case of a complaint involving residential property based on section 1161a as indicated on the caption of the complaint, to any other person, if 60 days have elapsed since the complaint was filed with the court, and as of that date, judgment against all defendants has been entered for the plaintiff, after a trial. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1161.2\(a\)\(1\)\(G.\))

An exception excludes records of mobile home park tenancies from this code section if the caption in the complaint indicates clearly that the complaint seeks to terminate a mobile home park tenancy; those records are not confidential. In addition, effective January 1, 2011, access to court records in unlawful detainer proceedings is permanently limited to persons specified in the statute in the case of complaints involving residential property based on section 1161a (holding over after sale under execution, mortgage, or trust deed [foreclosures]) as indicated in the caption of the complaint, unless 60 days have elapsed since filing of the complaint and judgment has been entered, after a trial, for the plaintiff and against all defendants. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1161.2.) The complaints in these actions shall state in the caption: “Action based on Code of Civil Procedure section 1161a.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 1166\(c\).)

False Claims Act cases. The documents initially filed in cases under the False Claims Act are confidential under Government Code section 12650 et seq. The complaint and other initial papers should be attached to a Confidential Cover Sheet—False Claims Action (form CM-011). The cover sheet contains a place where the date on which the sealing of the records in the case expires.

Confidential records in criminal proceedings

Search warrants. It is within the court’s discretion to seal the court documents and records of a search warrant until the warrant is executed and returned, or until the warrant expires. (Pen. Code, § 1534\(a\).) Thereafter, if the warrant has been executed, the documents and records shall be open to the public as a judicial record. Evidence Code sections 1040 and 1041 establish exceptions to the public status of executed search warrants; these provisions allow public entities to refuse disclosure of confidential official information and an informant’s identity when disclosure is against the public interest. When a search warrant is valid on its face, a public entity bringing a criminal proceeding may establish the search’s legality without revealing to the defendant any confidential official information or an informant’s identity. (Evid. Code, § 1042(b).) When a search warrant affidavit is fully or partially sealed pursuant to Evidence Code sections 1040 through 1042, the defense may request a motion to quash or traverse the search warrant. The court should conduct an in camera hearing following the procedure established in People v. Hobbs (1994) 7 Cal.4th 948.

Police reports. There is no specific statute, rule, or decision addressing the confidentiality of a police report once it has become a “court record.” Generally speaking, a police report that has been used in a judicial proceeding or is placed in a court file is presumed to be open to the public. Many police reports, however, contain sensitive or personal information about crime victims, witnesses, and other third parties. Penal Code section 1054.2\(a\)\(1\) provides that defense counsel may not disclose the address or telephone number of a victim or witness to the defendant or his or her family. Similarly, law enforcement agencies are prohibited from disclosing the address and phone number of a witness or victim, or an arrestee or potential defendant. (Pen. Code, § 841.5.) We suggest that courts should require that personal information be redacted before the report is filed with the court or used in a judicial proceeding.

Probation reports. Probation reports filed with the court are confidential except that they may be inspected:

- By anyone up to 60 days after either of two dates, whichever is earlier (1) when judgment is pronounced, or (2) when probation is granted;
- By any person pursuant to a court order;
- If made public by the court on its own motion; and
- By any person authorized or required by law. (Pen. Code, § 1203.05.)

Confidential records in family law proceedings

Child custody investigation and evaluation reports. These reports must be kept in the confidential portion of the family law file and are available only to the court, the parties, their attorneys, federal or state law enforcement, judicial officers, court employees or family court facilitators for the county in which the action was filed (or employees or agents of facilitators), counsel for the child, and any other person upon order of the court for good cause. (Fam. Code, §§ 3025.5, 3111, 3118; Evid. Code, § 730.)

Child custody mediation proceedings and reports. Child custody mediation proceedings and all communication, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator are confidential. If the mediator is authorized by local rule to issue a report to the court containing recommendations as a “Child Custody Recommending Counselor,” the report must be kept in the confidential portion of the family law file and is available only to the court, the parties, their attorneys, federal or state law enforcement, judicial officers, court employees or family court facilitators for the county in which the action was filed (or employees or agents of facilitators), counsel for the child, and any other person upon order of the court for good cause. (Fam. Code, §§ 3025.5, 3177, 3183.)

Written statements of issues and contentions by counsel appointed for child. These written statements must be kept in the confidential portion of the family law file and are available only to the court, the parties, their attorneys, federal or state law enforcement, judicial officers, court employees or family court facilitators for the county in which the action was filed (or employees or agents of facilitators), counsel for the child, and any other person, upon order of the court, for good cause. (Fam. Code, §§ 3025.5, 3151\(b\).)

Parentage Act documents. Records in Uniform Parentage Act proceedings, except the final judgment, are not open to the public. (Fam. Code, § 7643\(a\).) If a judge finds that a third party has shown good cause and finds exceptional circumstances, the court may grant that person access to the records. (Ibid.) This includes records from paternity actions.

Family conciliation court records. These records are confidential. The judge of the family conciliation court can grant permission for a party to review certain documents. (Fam. Code, § 1818\(b\).)

Proceeding to terminate parental rights. Documents related to such proceedings are confidential; only persons specified by law may review the records. (Fam. Code, § 7805.)

Support enforcement and child abduction records. Support enforcement and child abduction records are generally confidential; these records may be disclosed to persons specified by statute only under limited circumstances. In certain instances, the whereabouts of a party or a child must not be revealed to the other party or his or her attorneys. A local child support agency must redact such information from documents filed with the court. (Fam. Code, § 17212.)

Confidential records in probate proceedings

Confidential Guardian Screening Form (form GC-212). This mandatory Judicial Council form regarding the proposed guardian is confidential. It is used by the court and by persons or agencies designated by the court to assist in determining whether a proposed guardian should be appointed. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.1001\(c\).)

Confidential Supplemental Information (form GC-312). This form regarding the proposed conservatee is confidential. It shall be separate and distinct from the form for the petition. The form shall be made available only to parties, persons given notice of the petition who have requested this supplemental information, or who have appeared in the proceedings, their attorneys, and the court. The court has the discretion to release the information to others if it would serve the interest of the conservatee. The clerk shall make provisions for limiting the disclosure of the report exclusively to persons entitled thereto. (Prob. Code, § 1821\(a\).)

Confidential Conservator Screening Form (form GC-314). This mandatory Judicial Council form is confidential. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.1050\(c\).)

Reports regarding proposed conservators or guardianship. An investigative report created pursuant to Probate Code section 1513 concerning a proposed guardianship is confidential and available only to parties served in the action or their attorneys (generally, parents or legal custodian of child). An investigative report created pursuant to Probate Code section 1826 regarding the proposed conservatee is confidential and available only to those persons specified by statute. Under the statute, the reports on proposed conservatees shall be made available only to parties, persons given notice of the petition who have requested the report, or who have appeared in the proceedings, their attorneys, and the court. The court has the discretion to release the information to others if it would serve the interest of the conservatee. The clerk shall make provisions for limiting the disclosure of the reports on guardianships and conservatorships exclusively to persons entitled thereto. (Prob. Code, §§ 1513\(d\), 1826\(c\).)

Investigator’s review reports in conservatorships. These reports are confidential. The information in the reports may be made available only to parties, persons identified in section 1851\(b\), persons given notice who have requested the report or appeared in the proceeding, their attorneys, and the court. The court has the discretion to release the information to others if it would serve the interests of the conservatee. The clerk shall make provisions for limiting the disclosure of the report exclusively to persons entitled thereto. (Prob. Code, §§ 1851\(b\), \(e\).) Subdivision (b) provides for special restricted treatment of attachments containing medical information and confidential criminal information from California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). Although the attachments are not mentioned in subdivision (e), it is recommended, to be consistent with subdivision (b), that they be treated as confidential except to the conservator, conservatee, and their attorneys.

Certification forms. Certification of counsel of their qualifications (form GC-010) and certification of completion of continuing education (form GC-011): The forms state that they are “confidential for court use only.” They are governed by rule 7.1101, which states that the certifications must be submitted to the court but not lodged or filed in a case file. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 7.1101\(h\)\(6\).)

Confidential records in protective order proceedings

Confidential CLETS Information form. A Judicial Council form, Confidential CLETS Information (form CLETS-001), has been developed for petitioners in protective order proceedings to use to submit information about themselves and the respondents to be entered through the CLETS into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), a statewide database used to enforce protective orders. This form is submitted to the courts by petitioners in many types of protective order proceedings, including proceedings to prevent domestic violence, civil harassment, elder and dependent adult abuse, private postsecondary school violence, and juvenile cases. The information on the forms is intended for the use of law enforcement. The form is confidential. Access to the information on the form is limited to authorized court personnel, law enforcement, and other personnel authorized by the California Department of Justice to transmit or receive CLETS information. The forms must not be included in the court file. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 1.51.)

Protecting information about a minor in protective order cases. Family Code section 527.6 was amended and Code of Civil Procedure section 6301.5 was added to permit a minor or minor’s legal guardian to petition the court to make information relating to a minor confidential when issuing a domestic violence or civil harassment restraining order to protect the private information of vulnerable minors who are the victims of domestic abuse and human trafficking.

The standard for granting these requests is essentially the same standard for the sealing of records under rule 2.550 of the California Rules of Court.

The information that can be kept confidential includes the minor's name, address, and other information relating to the minor. New California Rules of Court, rules 3.1161 and 5.382 provide a consistent procedure for making requests for confidentiality, making orders on a request for confidentiality, and protecting information made confidential by the court. The minor or the minor's legal guardian can request that the information relating to the minor be kept confidential at any time during the case, using the new forms, Request to Keep Minor's Information Confidential (forms CH-160 and DV-160). Using the Order on Request to Keep Minor's Information Confidential (forms CH-165 and DV-165), the court expressly finds all of the following:

1. The minor's right to privacy overcomes the right of public access to the information;
2. There is a substantial probability that the minor's interest will be prejudiced if the information is not kept confidential;
3. The order to keep the information confidential is narrowly tailored; and
4. No less restrictive alternative exists to protect the minor's privacy.

When a confidentiality order has been issued, the party will use the Notice of Order Protecting Information of a Minor (forms CH-170 and DV-170) as a cover sheet for the requesting party to serve with the order and with the documents that contain information the court has ordered be protected (confidential). The cover sheet will provide notice to the party—often the restrained person—being served with unredacted documents that the documents contain confidential information subject to a confidentiality order.

Cover Sheet for Confidential Information (forms CH-175 and DV-175) will be used as a cover sheet for any documents that include confidential information subsequently filed in the protective order proceedings. This form alerts the clerk that the documents contain confidential information, so that the court can file the unredacted documents in the court's confidential files and make a determination as to who would be responsible for redaction of the documents so that redacted versions can be placed in the public files. This cover sheet can also be used in any other civil proceeding to alert the court in that proceeding that a confidentiality order exists protecting the minor's information.

Subpoenaed business records. Subpoenaed business records of nonparty entities are confidential until otherwise agreed to by the parties, introduced as evidence, or entered into the record. (Evid. Code, § 1560\(d\).)

Pitchess motions. Police officer personnel records are confidential and shall not be disclosed in any criminal or civil proceeding. (Pen. Code, § 832.7.) In criminal cases where the confidential personnel file of a peace officer may contain evidence relevant to the defense, a motion to discover relevant information may be brought by way of a Pitchess motion. (Pitchess v. Superior Court (1974) 11 Cal.3d 531.) The process for requesting court review for possible discovery of limited police officer personnel file information is codified in Evidence Code sections 1043–1046. If a defendant establishes good cause for disclosure, the trial court must screen the personnel files in camera for evidence that may be relevant to the defense. The court must examine the personnel files, make a record of the items reviewed, and, if relevant, reveal the name, address, and phone number of any prior complainants and witnesses, and dates of prior incidents. (City of Santa Cruz v. Municipal Court (1999) 49 Cal.3d 74, 84.) The court must order any disclosure not be used for any purpose other than in the underlying court proceeding. The Pitchess motion hearing transcript is sealed.

Medical records. The following federal and California statutes limit disclosure of medical records by medical providers, health care plans, or contractors. The laws do not impose obligations on the courts as to handling, management, and retention of medical records in court records. However, courts should place appropriate protections on medical records that have been filed confidentially or under seal.

Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). HIPAA and related federal regulations (42 U.S.C. § 1320d et seq., 45 C.F.R. § 160 et seq. & 164 et seq.) set standards for medical information held by covered entities, defined as (1) a health plan, (2) health care clearinghouse, or (3) a health care provider who transmits any health information in electronic form in connection with a transaction covered by the HIPAA provisions. (45 C.F.R. § 160.102(a).) Generally, courts participating in CalPERS Health Program, county-sponsored health plans, the Trial Court Benefits Program administered by the Judicial Council, or other fully insured plans are not covered entities subject to HIPAA, and therefore, the privacy rules of HIPAA do not directly apply to courts in their judicial function. (See 45 C.F.R. §§ 160–164.) However, HIPAA prohibits covered entities from disclosing medical records or protected health information (“PHI”) without a patient’s signed authorization or a signed court order. (45 C.F.R. § 164.508; 45 C.F.R. § 164.512\(e\)\(1\).) Parties responsible for maintaining confidentiality of information under HIPAA should request that such information be filed under seal pursuant to rules 2.550 and 2.551 of the California Rules of Court.

Because a court may meet the definition of “plan sponsor” under HIPAA (45 C.F.R. § 164.103), a court may have to comply with two minimal privacy obligations under HIPAA: (1) the “nonwaiver” provision, which prohibits a requirement that an individual waive his or her privacy rights under HIPAA as a condition of treatment, payment, enrollment, or eligibility; and (2) the “nonretaliation” provision, which forbids retaliatory action against individuals for exercising rights under HIPAA. Courts should consult with their human resources departments for appropriate personnel policy language.

California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (Civ. Code, §§ 56–56.37). The Confidentiality of Medical Information Act governs the disclosure of medical information by health care providers. (Civ. Code, § 56 et seq.) Courts are generally not health care providers covered by the act and are not directly subject to the law’s confidentiality provisions. (Civ. Code, § 56.05\(m\).) A limited exception may occur when a court employs a health care provider, such as a clinical social worker, to conduct assessments and other services for a collaborative court. In these limited circumstances, the medical information is likely confidential, and court staff should use an authorization for release of medical information to discuss pertinent information with other collaborative court team members. (Civ. Code, § 56.10\(a\).) California law prohibits medical providers, health care service plans, or contractors from disclosing a patient's medical information, without authorization, or, among other things, a court order. (Civ. Code, § 56.10\(b\)\(1\).) A party submitting such medical information should submit the information pursuant either to a protective order or a motion to seal. (See rule 2.551.)

- [Practice Tip: When parties submit medical information, including medical records or other records containing PHI, without seeking a protective order or filing a motion to seal, a court may, if it identifies such information, issue on its own motion a qualified protective order filing such information under seal.]

Psychiatric records or reports

Records of mental health treatment or services for the developmentally disabled, including Lanterman-Petris-Short (LPS) Act proceedings. Under Welfare and Institutions Code sections 5328 and 5330, the following records are confidential and can be disclosed only to recipients authorized in Welfare and Institutions Code section 5328: records related to the Department of Mental Health (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 4000 et seq.); Developmental Services (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 4400 et seq.); Community Mental Health Services (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 5000 et seq.); services for the developmentally disabled (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 4500 et seq.); voluntary admission to mental hospitals (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 6000 et seq.); and mental institutions (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 7100 et seq.).

Psychiatric records or reports in criminal cases. Reports prepared at the request of defense counsel to determine whether to enter or withdraw a plea based on insanity or mental or emotional condition are confidential. (Evid. Code, § 1017.) However, most psychiatric reports prepared at the court's request are presumed open to the public. (See Evid. Code, § 1017 [report by a court-appointed psychotherapist]; Evid. Code, § 730 [report by a court-appointed expert]; Pen. Code, § 288.1 [report on sex offender prior to suspension of sentence]; Pen. Code, § 1368 [report concerning defendant's competency]; and Pen. Code, §§ 1026, 1027 [report on persons pleading not guilty by reason of insanity].)

Reports concerning mentally disordered prisoners. Reports under Penal Code section 4011.6 to evaluate whether prisoners are mentally disordered are confidential. (Pen. Code, § 4011.6.)

Presentencing diagnostic reports. Under Penal Code section 1203.03, the report and recommendation from the 90-day Department of Corrections presentencing diagnosis should be released only to the defendant or defense counsel, the probation officer, and the prosecuting attorney. After the case closes, only those persons listed immediately above, the court, and the Department of Corrections may access the report. Disclosure to anyone else is prohibited unless the defendant consents. (Pen. Code, § 1203.03\(b\).)

Medical diagnoses and test results

Substance use disorder-related information from qualifying federally assisted programs. The Code of Federal Regulations provides that information that would disclose the identity of a person receiving treatment for a substance use disorder from a qualifying federally assisted program is confidential. (42 C.F.R. § 2.12.) A “qualifying federally assisted program” subject to the regulations includes a recipient of federal financial assistance in any form, including financial assistance which does not directly pay for the substance use disorder diagnosis, treatment, or referral for treatment; or a program conducted by a state or local government unit that, through general or special revenue sharing or other forms of assistance, receives federal funds that could be (but are not necessarily) spent for the substance use disorder program. (Id. at § 2.12(b)(3)(i), (ii).) A “program” is defined to include “an individual or entity (other than a general medical care facility) who holds itself out as providing, and provides, substance use disorder diagnosis, treatment or referral for treatment. . . .” (Id. at § 2.11(a).)

Information from collaborative courts involving substance use disorder diagnosis or treatment, such as drug court programs, may be subject to the confidentiality provisions of the federal regulations, depending on whether the program or the court receives federal financial assistance as defined in the regulations. This may include information related to program participants and records identifying the participant and his or her diagnosis and treatment.

Infectious or communicable disease information. Under Health and Safety Code section 120290(h)(1), when alleging a violation of section 120290(a), the prosecuting attorney or the grand jury must substitute a pseudonym for the true name of a complaining witness. The actual name and other identifying characteristics of a complaining witness shall be revealed to the court only in camera, unless the complaining witness requests otherwise, and the court shall seal the information from further disclosure, except by counsel as part of discovery. Under Health and Safety Code section 120290(h)(2), unless the complaining witness requests otherwise, all court decisions, orders, petitions, and other documents, including motions and papers filed by the parties, shall be worded so as to protect the name or other identifying characteristics of the complaining witness from public disclosure.

Under Health and Safety Code section 120290(h)(3), unless the complaining witness requests otherwise, a court in which a violation of this section is filed shall, at the first opportunity, issue an order that prohibits counsel, their agents, law enforcement personnel, and court staff from making a public disclosure of the name or any other identifying characteristic of the complaining witness.

Under Health and Safety Code section 120290(h)(4), unless the defendant requests otherwise, a court in which a violation of this section is filed, at the earliest opportunity, shall issue an order that counsel and their agents, law enforcement personnel, and court staff, before a finding of guilt, not publicly disclose the name or other identifying characteristics of the defendant, except by counsel as part of discovery or to a limited number of relevant individuals in its investigation of the specific charges under this section. In any public disclosure, a pseudonym shall be substituted for the true name of the defendant.

HIV test results or status. No person shall disclose HIV test results without the patient's signed authorization, or except pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 1603.1, 1603.3, or 121022, or any other statute expressly providing an exemption. (Health & Saf. Code, § 120980(g).)

Court records containing results of mandatory AIDS testing for defendants convicted of violating Penal Code section 647\(b\) are, with certain specified exceptions, confidential. (Former Pen. Code, § 1202.6\(f\).) HIV test results ordered of defendants charged with certain crimes are also confidential. (Pen. Code, §§ 1202.1, 1524.1.)

Penal Code section 1202.1 requires every person convicted of the following crimes to undergo an HIV test: rape in violation of Penal Code section 261 or 264.1; unlawful intercourse with a person under 18 years of age in violation of Penal Code section 261.5 or 266c; rape of a spouse in violation of Penal Code section 262 or 264.1; sodomy in violation of Penal Code section 266c or 288a; or any offenses if the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that blood, semen, or other bodily fluid capable of transmitting HIV has been transferred from the defendant to the victim during certain offenses or attempts to commit such offenses (sexual penetration in violation of Penal Code section 264.1, 266c, or 289; aggravated sexual assault of a child in violation of Penal Code section 269; lewd or lascivious conduct with a child in violation of Penal Code section 288; continuous sexual abuse of a child in violation of Penal Code section 288.5). The clerk of the court shall transmit the HIV results to the Department of Justice and the local health officer.

Penal Code section 1524.1 provides that, where there is (1) a defendant charged with certain crimes (Pen. Code, §§ 220, 261, 262, 264.1, 266c, 269, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, 289.5) or with the attempt to commit any of these offenses, and the defendant is the subject of a police report alleging commission of, or of attempt to commit, a separate, uncharged offense that could be charged under those previously cited statutes; or (2) a minor is the subject of a petition filed in juvenile court alleging commission of crimes under those cited statutes, or attempt to commit any of the offenses, and is the subject of a police report alleging commission of a separate, uncharged offense under those cited statutes, or attempt to commit any of those offenses, at the request of the victim of the uncharged offense, the court may issue a search warrant to obtain an HIV test from the charged defendant or minor upon proper findings of probable cause.

If a court orders HIV tests under Health and Safety Code sections 121055, 121056, and 121060, the court shall order that all persons receiving the results maintain the confidentiality of personal identifying data related to the test results, except as necessary for medical or psychological care or advice. (Health & Saf. Code, § 121065.)

However, HIV status and/or test results under former Penal Code sections 647f and 12022.85, and former Health and Safety Code sections 1621.5, 120290, and 120291 are generally not confidential as they are a required element of a crime or enhanced sentencing and may become part of the public court records in these cases. (Former Pen. Code, § 647f was repealed as of Jan. 1, 2018, by Stats. 2017, ch. 537, § 8; former Health & Saf. Code, § 1621.5 was repealed as of Jan. 1, 2018, by Stats. 2017, ch. 537, § 2; former Health & Saf. Code, § 120290 was repealed as of Jan. 1, 2018, by Stats. 2017, ch. 537, § 4, and new Health & Saf. Code, § 120290 was added as of Jan. 1, 2018, by Stats. 2017, ch. 537, § 5; former Health & Saf. Code, § 120291 was repealed as of Jan. 1, 2018, by Stats. 2017, ch. 537, § 6.)

Further, see above discussion regarding medical diagnoses and tests for discussion about Health and Safety Code section 120290(h)(1) and requirements for sealing information in cases regarding alleged violations of section 120290(a).

Confidential requests for disability accommodation

Under rule 1.100\(c\), persons with disabilities may request accommodations from the court by submitting form MC-410. Courts must keep this form confidential, unless the applicant waives confidentiality in writing or disclosure is required by law. The applicant's identity and confidential information may not be disclosed to the public or to persons other than those involved in the accommodation process. Confidential information includes all medical information related to the applicant and all oral or written communication from the applicant concerning the request for accommodation. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 1.100\(c\)\(4\).)

2.1.2 Sealed Records

General rules on sealed records: rules 2.500 and 2.551

The main rules on sealed records in the trial courts are contained in rules 2.550 and 2.551 of the California Rules of Court. The premise of these rules is that court records are presumed to be open unless confidentiality is required by law. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550\(c\).) A court may only order that a record be filed under seal if it expressly finds facts that establish:

- (1) There exists an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access to the record;
- (2) The overriding interest supports sealing the record;
- (3) A substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed;
- (4) The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and
- (5) No less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest.

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550\(d\).) This substantive test is based on the Supreme Court's decision in NBC Subsidiary (KNBC-TV) v. Superior Court of Los Angeles County (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1178, 1217–1218.

The right of privacy may qualify as an overriding interest in the proper situation. In In re Marriage of Burkle (2006) 135 Cal.App.4th 1045, the court stated: “We have no doubt that, in appropriate circumstances, the right of privacy may be properly described as a compelling or overriding interest.” (Id. at p. 1063.) However, the Burkle case involved an attempt to close financial records in divorce proceedings under a statute, Family Code section 2024.6, which the court concluded was not narrowly tailored to serve overriding privacy interests. Because less restrictive means exist to achieve the statutory objective, the court found that Family Code section 2024.6 operates as an undue burden on the First Amendment right of public access to court records. Hence, the court concluded that statute is unconstitutional on its face. (Id. at p. 1048.)

In circumstances where a court determines that sealing is appropriate, the content and scope of the sealing order is prescribed by rule. The rules provide that the court's order must (1) state the facts that support the findings, and (2) direct the sealing of only those documents and pages, or if reasonably practical, portions of those documents and pages that contain the materials that need to be placed under seal. All other portions of each document or page must be included in the public file. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550\(e\).)

The procedures for filing records under seal in the trial courts are contained in rule 2.551. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.551.)

Sealing of specific records in criminal cases

Certain specific criminal court records may be sealed upon a motion and court order under various provisions. (See Appendix 1.)

Sealing of records in juvenile cases

There are three specific statutes and two rules on sealing juvenile records. (Welf. & Inst. Code, §§ 781, 786, 786.5; Cal. Rules of Court, rules 5.830, 5.840.) Section 781 and rule 5.830 allow a former ward of the court to petition the court to order juvenile records sealed. If the petition is granted, the court must order the sealing of all records described in section 781. The order must apply in the county of the court hearing the petition and all other counties in which there are juvenile records concerning the petitioner. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 5.830\(a\)\(4\).) All records sealed must be destroyed according to section 781\(d\). There is also a requirement in section 786 that the court order records sealed for juvenile delinquency cases when the child has satisfactorily completed probation and the offense charged is not listed in Welfare and Institutions Code section 707\(b\).

Specific procedures to dismiss and seal the records of minors who are subject to section 786 are contained in rule 5.840 (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 5.840). There are numerous instances where records sealed under section 786 are allowed to be accessed by various entities without the access being deemed an unsealing. (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 786\(g\).) Welfare and Institutions Code section 786.5 requires the probation department to seal records for diversion cases when the diversion program has been satisfactorily completed and to provide notice that it has sealed the records or, if it has not, the reason for not doing so. It also provides the right to petition the court for review of a determination that records should not be sealed.

2.2 Confidential and Sealed Records in the Appellate Courts

For appeals and original proceedings in the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal, specific rules have been adopted relating to sealed and confidential records: rule 8.45 (general provisions), rule 8.46 (sealed records), and rule 8.47 (confidential records).

2.2.1 General Provisions

Rule 8.45 provides general requirements for the handling of sealed and confidential records by a reviewing court. These records must be kept separate from the rest of the records sent to the court and must be kept in a secure manner that preserves their confidentiality. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.45(c)(1).) The rule prescribes the format of sealed and confidential records and states the manner in which these records are to be listed in alphabetical and chronological indexes available to the public. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.45(c)(2).) It describes the special treatment required for records relating to a request for funds under Penal Code section 987.9. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.45(c)(3).)

Rule 8.45 also provides guidance on the transmission of and access to sealed and confidential records. For instance, unless otherwise provided by law, a sealed or confidential record that is part of the record on appeal must be transmitted only to the reviewing court and the party or parties who had access to the record in the trial court and may be examined only by the reviewing court and that party or parties. If a party's attorney—but not the party—had access to the record in the trial court, only the party's attorney may examine the record. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.45(d)(1).)

2.2.2 Sealed Records

Rule 8.46 is the basic rule on sealed records in the reviewing court. First, it provides that if a record sealed by order of the trial court is part of the record on appeal, the sealed record must remain sealed unless the reviewing court orders otherwise. The record on appeal or supporting documents must include the motion or application to seal in the trial court, all documents filed in the trial court supporting or opposing the motion or application to seal, and the trial court order sealing the record. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.46(b)(1)–(2).)

Second, a record filed or lodged publicly in the trial court and not ordered sealed must not be filed under seal in the reviewing court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.46(c).)

Third, the rule prescribes the procedures for obtaining an order from a reviewing court to seal a record that was not filed in the trial court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.46(d).)

Fourth, a sealed record must not be unsealed except on order of the reviewing court. The rule prescribes the procedures for seeking to unseal a record in the reviewing court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.46(e).)

Fifth, the rule prohibits the public filing in a reviewing court of material that was filed under seal, lodged conditionally under seal, or otherwise subject to a pending motion to file under seal. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.46(f).)

2.2.3 Confidential Records

Rule 8.47 governs the form and transmission of and access to confidential records (as distinguished from records sealed by court order or filed conditionally sealed) in the appellate courts. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.47(a).) The rule includes a subdivision specifically on how to handle reporter's transcripts and documents filed or lodged in Marsden hearings and other in camera proceedings. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.47(b).) It also contains general procedures for handling other confidential records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.47(c).)

2.3 Privacy in Opinions of the Courts of Appeal

Based on concerns about the need for privacy protection, two rules of court have been adopted relating to the references to specific individuals in opinions and certain other records.

2.3.1 Privacy in Appellate Opinions

Rule 8.90, adopted effective January 1, 2017, provides guidance on the use of names in appellate court opinions, except for names in juvenile cases that are covered by rule 8.401 (discussed below). The rule states that, to protect personal privacy interests, the reviewing court should consider referring in opinions to people on the following list by first name and last initial or, if the first name is unusual or other circumstances would defeat the objective of anonymity, by initials only:

- (1) Children in all proceedings under the Family Code and protected persons in domestic violence prevention proceedings;
- (2) Wards in guardianship proceedings and conservatees in conservatorship proceedings;
- (3) Patients in mental health proceedings;
- (4) Victims in criminal proceedings;

- (5) Protected persons in civil harassment proceedings under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.6;
- (6) Protected persons in workplace violence prevention proceedings under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.8;
- (7) Protected persons in private postsecondary school violence prevention proceedings under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85;
- (8) Protected persons in elder or dependent adult abuse prevention proceedings under Welfare and Institutions Code section 15657.03;
- (9) Minors or persons with disabilities in proceedings to compromise the claims of a minor or a person with a disability;
- (10) Persons in other circumstances in which personal privacy interests support not using the person's name; and
- (11) Persons in other circumstances in which use of that person's full name would defeat the objective of anonymity for a person identified in (1)–(10).

2.3.2 Confidentiality in Juvenile Records and Opinions

To protect the anonymity of juveniles involved in juvenile court proceedings, rule 8.401, adopted effective January 1, 2012, provides:

- In all documents filed by the parties in juvenile appeals and writ proceedings, a juvenile must be referred to by first name and last initial; but if the first name is unusual or other circumstances would defeat the objective of anonymity, the initials of the juvenile may be used.
- In opinions that are not certified for publication and in court orders, a juvenile may be referred to either by first name and last initial or by his or her initials. In opinions that are certified for publication, a juvenile must be referred to by first name and last initial; but if the first name is unusual or other circumstances would defeat the objective of anonymity, the initials of the juvenile may be used.
- In all documents filed by the parties and in all court orders and opinions in juvenile appeals and writ proceedings, if use of the full name of a juvenile's relative would defeat the objective of anonymity for the juvenile, the relative must be referred to by first name and last initial; but if the first name is unusual or other circumstances would defeat the objective of anonymity for the juvenile, the initials of the relative may be used.

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.401(a).)

Rule 8.401 also contains provisions regarding access to filed documents. In general, the record on appeal and documents filed by the parties in proceedings under this chapter may be inspected only by the reviewing court and appellate project personnel, the parties or their attorneys, and other persons the court may designate. Filed documents that protect anonymity as required by subdivision (a) may be inspected by any person or entity that is considering filing an amicus curiae brief. In addition, access to records that are sealed or confidential under authority other than Welfare and Institutions Code section 827 is governed by rules 8.45–8.47, and the applicable statute, rule, sealing order, or other authority.

Rule 8.401 also allows the court to limit or prohibit admittance to oral argument. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.401(c).)

2.3.3 Other Privacy Concerns

In addition, the rules prohibit a document filed in the reviewing court or an appellate opinion from including social security numbers or financial account numbers. (Cal. Rules of Court, rules 1.201, 8.41, 8.70(c)(2).)

The reviewing court might also consider omitting from an opinion other information that could indirectly identify a person protected under rules 8.90 or 8.401, such as dates, addresses, street names, or names of a school or business.

2.4 Redaction of Trial and Appellate Court Records

2.4.1 Redaction of Social Security Numbers and Financial Account Numbers

California Rules of Court, rules 1.201 and 8.41 impose a duty on the parties or their attorneys to redact certain identifiers (i.e., social security numbers and financial account numbers) from documents filed with the court. It is the responsibility of the filers to exclude or redact the identifiers. The rules state that court clerks will not review each pleading or other paper for compliance with the requirements of the rules. In an appropriate case, the court on a showing of good cause may order a party filing a redacted document to file a Confidential Reference List of Identifiers (form MC-120) identifying the redacted information. This form is confidential.

2.4.2 Redaction of Social Security Numbers from Documents Filed in Dissolution of Marriage, Nullity of Marriage, and Dissolution Cases

In general, petitioners and respondents may redact any social security number from any pleading, attachment, document, or other written materials filed with the court pursuant to a petition for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or legal separation. (Fam. Code, § 2024.5(a).) However, an abstract of support judgment, the form required pursuant to Family Code section

4014, or any similar form created for the purpose of collecting child or spousal support payments may not be redacted. (Fam. Code, § 2024.5(b).)

2.4.3 Abstracts of Judgment or Decrees Requiring Payment of Money

The contents of an abstract of judgment or a decree requiring the payment of money are prescribed by Code of Civil Procedure section 674. The section provides that any judgment or decree shall contain the last four digits of the social security number and the driver's license number of the judgment debtor if they are known to the judgment creditor. (Code Civ. Proc., § 674(a)(6).)

2.4.4. Redaction of Information about Victims or Witnesses in Criminal Cases

Law enforcement agencies are prohibited from disclosing the address and phone number of a witness or victim to an arrestee or potential defendant. (Pen. Code, § 841.5.) Similarly, defense counsel may not disclose the address or phone number of a victim or witness to the defendant, his or her family, or anyone else. (Pen. Code, § 1054.2.) This information may be contained in police reports and other documents filed with the courts. It is recommended that courts require that the addresses and phone numbers of victims and witnesses be redacted before any document containing that information is filed with the court or used in a judicial proceeding.

2.5 Destruction of Records

2.5.1 Destruction of Criminal Records

Records of arrest or conviction for marijuana-related offenses

These records include all offenses under Health & Safety Code sections 11357, 11360(b), and any records pertaining to the arrest and conviction of any person under 18 for violations under Health and Safety Code sections 11357 through 11362.9, except for section 11357.5. These records must be destroyed two years from either the date of conviction, the date of arrest if there was no conviction, or two years upon release from custody for persons incarcerated pursuant to the subdivision. (Health & Saf. Code, § 11361.5\(a\).) Records associated with violations of section 11357(d) shall be retained until the offender turns 18, at which point they are also to be destroyed. (Health & Saf. Code, § 11361.5\(a\).) This rule is subject to exceptions for records from judicial proceedings and records related to an offender's civil action against a public entity. (See Health & Saf. Code, § 11361.5\(d\).) Public agencies are prohibited from using information in records subject to destruction, even if they have not yet been destroyed. (Health & Saf. Code, § 11361.7\(b\).)

3. Access to Court Records

3.1 Public Access to Trial Court Records

Court records are presumed to be open, unless they are confidential as a matter of law or are sealed by court order. Confidential and sealed records are described in sections 2.1 and 2.2, and Appendix 1 of this resource guide.

3.1.1. Public Access to Paper Court Records at the Courthouse

Paper records that are not confidential or sealed are available at the courthouse for public inspection and copying. These paper records in the past were often costly to locate, inspect, and copy. The difficulties and expenses involved in obtaining these paper records impeded public access but also provided an added level of privacy. This important practical effect of older court business practices was reflected in the “doctrine of practical obscurity,” which recognized that obscurity could serve positive purposes with respect to protecting privacy interests.

Increasingly, courts are relying on records created and maintained in electronic format. These records can be searched and made accessible remotely. Thus, if the benefits of “practical obscurity” are to be preserved, this will no longer be a byproduct of old paper-based business practices. Instead, providing privacy protection through differential ease of access to court records is a conscious policy choice and requires carefully planned implementation.

3.1.2 Electronic Court Records

Rules 2.500 through 2.507 of the California Rules of Court, first adopted in 2002, are intended to provide the public with reasonable access to trial court records that are maintained in electronic form while protecting privacy interests. These rules prescribe how the public may access electronic records both at the courthouse and remotely.

- Rule 2.500. Statement of purpose;
- Rule 2.501. Application and scope;
- Rule 2.502. Definitions;
- Rule 2.503. Public access;
- Rule 2.504. Limitations and conditions;
- Rule 2.505. Contracts with vendors;
- Rule 2.506. Fees for electronic access; and
- Rule 2.507. Electronic access to court calendars, indexes, and registers of actions.

The rules are not intended to give the public a right of access to any electronic record that they are not otherwise entitled to access in paper form, and do not create any right of access to records sealed by court order or confidential as a matter of law. These rules apply only to trial court records and only to access to court records by the public. They do not prescribe the access to court records by a party to an action or proceeding, by the attorney for a party, or by other persons or entities that may be entitled to such access by statute or rule.

3.1.3 Courthouse and Remote Access to Electronic Records

The law requires that court records maintained in electronic form “shall be made reasonably accessible to all members of the public for viewing and duplication as the paper records would have been accessible.” (Gov. Code, § 68150\(L\).) Electronic access must be available at the courthouse and may also be made available remotely.

If a court maintains records in electronic form, it must provide a means for the public to view those records at the courthouse. “Unless access is otherwise restricted by law, court records maintained in electronic form shall be viewable at the courthouse, regardless of whether they are also accessible remotely.” (Gov. Code, § 68150\(L\), italics added.)

3.1.4 Access by Type of Record

There are some important restrictions on the records that may be made available remotely that do not apply to records at the courthouse. By rule of court, the following types of court records may not be made available remotely to the public:

1. Records in a proceeding under the Family Code, including proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, and nullity of marriage; child and spousal support proceedings; child custody proceedings; and domestic violence prevention proceedings;
2. Records in a juvenile court proceeding;
3. Records in a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding;
4. Records in a mental health proceeding;
5. Records in a criminal proceeding;
6. Records in a civil harassment proceeding under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.6;
7. Records in a workplace violence prevention proceeding under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.8;
8. Records in a private postsecondary school violence prevention proceeding under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85;
9. Records in an elder or dependent adult abuse prevention proceeding under Welfare and Institutions Code section 15657.03; and
10. Records in proceedings to compromise the claims of a minor or a person with a disability.

(See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(c\).)

As this list indicates, many of the types of cases whose records that are by deliberate policy not made readily available remotely to the public involve sensitive, private, personal, and financial information about children, elderly and disabled persons, and victims of crime and violence.

3.1.5 Remote Access in High-Profile Criminal Cases

Notwithstanding the general restriction against providing criminal records remotely in rule 2.503\(c\), under rule 2.503\(e\), the presiding judge or a designated judge may order the records of a high-profile criminal case to be posted on the court’s website to enable faster and easier access to these records by the media and public. This rule specifies several factors that judges must consider before taking such action. One of the factors to be considered is: “The privacy interests of parties, victims, witnesses, and court personnel, and the ability of the court to redact sensitive personal information.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(e\)\(1\)\(A\).) Prior to posting, staff should, to the extent feasible, redact any confidential information contained in the court documents in accordance with California Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(e\)\(2\). In addition, five days’ notice must be provided to the parties and the public before the court makes a determination to provide electronic access under the rule. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(e\)\(3\).)

3.1.6 Case-by-Case Access

The court may only grant electronic access to an electronic record when the record is identified by the number of the case, the caption of the case, or the name of party, and only on a case-by-case basis. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(f\).)

3.1.7 Bulk Data

The court may provide bulk distribution of only its electronic records of a calendar, index, or register of actions. “Bulk distribution” means distribution of all, or a significant subset, of the court’s electronic records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(g\).)

3.1.8 Access to Calendars, Indexes, and Registers of Action

Courts that maintain records in electronic form must, to the extent feasible, provide—both at the courthouse and remotely—access to registers of action, calendars, and indexes. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(b\).) The minimum contents for electronically accessible court calendars, indexes, and registers of action are prescribed by rule. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.507\(b\).) This enables the public to obtain access to court records in an effective, meaningful way.

There is also a rule on what information must be excluded from court calendars, indexes, and registers of action; the information to be excluded includes social security numbers, financial information, arrest and search warrant information, victim and witness information, ethnicity, age, gender, government (i.e., military) identification numbers, driver’s license numbers, and dates of birth. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.507\(c\).) Thus, the rule on court calendars, indexes, and registers of action explicitly recognizes the parties to lawsuits have important privacy rights that should not be compromised by easily and unnecessarily providing large amounts of private information.

3.2 Public Access to Records in the Courts of Appeal

Appellate court records are assumed to be open unless they are confidential as a matter of law or are sealed by court order. Confidential and sealed records on appeal are described in section 2.2 of this resource guide on rules 8.46 (sealed records) and 8.47 (confidential records). This section addresses other rules on access to appellate court records that are intended to protect persons' privacy interests.

3.2.1 The Transition to Electronic Court Records in the Courts of Appeal

Historically, paper records that are not confidential or sealed have been available at the appellate court for public inspection and copying. However, like the trial courts, the appellate courts are increasingly relying on records created and maintained in electronic rather than paper form. These electronic records can be made available remotely to the extent feasible and permitted by law.

The paper records used in the past were costly to locate, inspect, and copy. The difficulties and expense involved in obtaining these paper records impeded public access but also provided an added level of privacy. This important practical effect of older business practices was reflected in the doctrine of "practical obscurity," which recognized that obscurity could serve positive purposes with respect to protecting privacy interests. However, as the appellate courts are shifting to electronic records, protecting privacy interests is no longer a byproduct of paper-based business practices, but rather is the result of deliberate policy choices to provide differential access to electronic records. These policy choices are reflected in the rules of court on remote access to records.

3.2.2 Public Access to Electronic Appellate Court Records

Public access to electronic appellate court records are governed by rules 8.80–8.85:

- Rule 8.80. Statement of purpose;
- Rule 8.81. Application and scope;
- Rule 8.82. Definitions;
- Rule 8.83. Public access;
- Rule 8.84. Limitations and conditions; and
- Rule 8.85. Fees for copies of electronic records.

These rules, adopted effective January 1, 2016, are intended to provide the public with reasonable access to appellate records that are maintained in electronic form while protecting privacy interests. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.80(a).)

The rules on remote access to electronic appellate court records are not intended to give the public a right of access to any electronic record that they are not otherwise entitled to access in paper form, and do not create any right of access to records sealed by court order or confidential as a matter of law. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.80(c).) These rules apply only to records of the Supreme Court and the Courts of Appeal and only to access to records by the public. They do not prescribe the access to court records by a party to an action or proceeding, by the attorney for a party, or by other persons or entities that may be entitled to such access by statute or rule. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.81(a) and (b).)

3.2.3 General Right of Access; Remote Access to the Extent Feasible

Rule 8.83 provides that all electronic records must be made reasonably available to the public in some form, whether in electronic or paper form, except sealed or confidential records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(a).)

Under rule 8.83(b) to the extent feasible, appellate courts will provide, both remotely and at the courthouse, the following records provided they are not sealed or confidential:

- Dockets or registers of actions;
- Calendars;
- Opinions;
- The following Supreme Court records:
  - Results from the most recent Supreme Court conference;
  - Party briefs in cases argued in the Supreme Court in the preceding three years; and
  - Supreme Court minutes from at least the preceding three years.

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(b)(1).)

If an appellate court maintains records in electronic form in civil cases in addition to the records just listed, electronic access to these records must be provided both at the courthouse and remotely, to the extent feasible, except those records listed in section 3.2.4 of this resource guide. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(b)(2).)

3.2.4 Access by Type of Record

By rule, access to the electronic records listed below must be provided at the courthouse to the extent it is feasible to do so, but remote electronic access may not be provided to the following records:

- Any reporter's transcript for which the reporter is entitled to receive a fee; and
- Records other than those listed in rule 8.83(b)(1) in the following proceedings:

- Proceedings under the Family Code, including proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, and nullity of marriage; child and spousal support proceedings; child custody proceedings; and domestic violence prevention proceedings;
- Juvenile court proceedings;
- Guardianship or conservatorship proceedings;
- Mental health proceedings;
- Criminal proceedings;
- Civil harassment proceedings under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.6;
- Workplace violence prevention proceedings under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.8;
- Private postsecondary school violence prevention proceedings under Code of Civil Procedure section 527.85;
- Elder or dependent adult abuse prevention proceedings under Welfare and Institutions Code section 15657.03; and
- Proceedings to compromise the claims of a minor or a person with a disability.

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(c).)

3.2.5 Remote Electronic Access Permitted in Extraordinary Cases

The appellate rules on remote access include a provision that allows the presiding justice, or a justice assigned by the presiding justice, to exercise discretion to permit remote access by the public to all or a portion of the public court records in an individual case if (1) the number of requests for access to documents is extraordinarily high, and (2) responding to those requests would significantly burden the operations of the court. Unlike the comparable trial court records rule (see Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503\(c\)) that is limited to extraordinary criminal cases, the appellate rule has no restriction on the type or types of cases to which it applies. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(d).)

The appellate rule does provide: “An individualized determination must be made in each case in which such remote access is provided.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(d).) It also provides guidance on the relevant factors to be considered in exercising the court’s discretion to provide remote access, including “[t]he privacy interests of parties, victims, witnesses, and court personnel, and the ability of the court to redact sensitive personal information.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(d)(1), italics added.)

In addition, the rule provides a specific list of the information that must be redacted from the records to which the court allows remote access in extraordinary cases, including driver’s license numbers; dates of birth; social security numbers; criminal identification and information, and national crime information numbers; addresses, e-mail addresses, and phone numbers of parties, victims, witnesses, and court personnel; medical or psychiatric information; financial information; account numbers; and other personal identifying information. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(d)(2).)

3.2.6 Other Limitations on Remote Access

Like the trial court rules, the appellate rules on remote access have certain additional safeguards that prevent remote access to court records from being used to thwart the privacy interests of individuals whose names appear in those records. Except for calendars, registers of action, and certain Supreme Court records, electronic access to records may be granted only if the record is identified by the number of the case, the caption of the case, the name of a party, the name of the attorney, or the date of oral argument, and only on a case-by-case basis. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(e).) Also, bulk distribution is not permitted for most court records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.83(f).)

3.3 Remote Access to Trial Court Records by a Party, Party's Attorney, Court-Appointed Person, or Authorized Person Working in a Legal Organization or Qualified Legal Services Project

As described in section 3.1.2 of this resource guide, the Judicial Council adopted rules relating to remote public access to electronic trial court records in 2002. However, those rules apply only to access to electronic records by the public; they do not prescribe the access to those records by a party to an action or proceeding, by the attorney for a party, or by other persons or entities that may be entitled to such access by statute or rule. This gap in the law on remote access was addressed, effective January 1, 2019, by the adoption of a new set of rules on remote access to trial court records by a party, a party's attorney, a court-appointed person, or an authorized person working in a legal organization or qualified legal services project.

- Rule 2.515. Application and scope;
- Rule 2.516. Remote access to extent feasible;
- Rule 2.517. Remote access by a party;
- Rule 2.518. Remote access by a party's designee;
- Rule 2.519. Remote access by a party's attorney;
- Rule 2.520. Remote access to persons working in the same legal organization as a party's attorney;
- Rule 2.521. Remote access by a court-appointed person;
- Rule 2.522. Remote access by persons working in a qualified legal services project providing brief legal services;
- Rule 2.523. Identity verification, identity management, and user access;
- Rule 2.524. Security of confidential information;
- Rule 2.525. Searches; unauthorized access;
- Rule 2.526. Audit trails;
- Rule 2.527. Additional conditions of access; and
- Rule 2.528. Termination of remote access.

These rules (collectively the “party access rules”) have been carefully written to balance increased access to records while protecting the reasonable privacy interests of parties doing business with the courts.

The party access rules are different from the public access rules (Cal. Rules of Court, rules 2.503–2.507) in significant ways. The rules on public access include some important limitations on remote access to protect the privacy interests of persons doing business with the courts. In particular, those rules contain provisions allowing public access to records only at the courthouse in certain types of cases, including criminal, family law, and violence restraining order cases. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.503(c).) The public may not have remote access to these records even if they are in electronic form. This policy of creating “practical obscurity” of certain types of records that often contain sensitive personal or financial information helps protect the privacy of many litigants from undue public scrutiny.

On the other hand, there are no privacy reasons to prevent a party, a party’s attorney, or another person legally assisting a party from having remote access to the party’s records. Preventing easy access to parties’ own records does not promote parties’ privacy interests while it makes it more difficult for them to conduct their business with the court. Hence, the party access rules (Cal. Rules of Court, rules 2.515–2.528) have been adopted to provide greater remote access to parties than to the public at large.

While the party access rules facilitate parties’ access to their own records, they also include provisions that further protect the privacy interests of persons doing business with the courts. First, they do not provide unfettered remote access to records. Like all the rules in the chapter on Access to Electronic Trial Court Records, the party access rules do not give parties, their attorneys, legal organizations, or court-appointed persons any greater right of access to records than they would otherwise be legally entitled if they went to the courthouse to inspect records.<sup>4</sup>

The party access rules also contain other safeguards to protect the privacy of parties. For instance, parties’ attorneys and others authorized to have remote access to a party’s records must access records only for the purposes of their representation, may not distribute any electronic records obtained remotely for sale, must comply with all laws governing confidentiality of records, and must comply with any other terms required by the court. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rules 2.519(d), 2.520(d), 2.521(c), 2.522(d).) The identity of persons accessing a party’s records must be verified. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.523.) Remote access to any confidential or sealed records must be provided through a secure platform and any electronic transmission of the information must be encrypted. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.524(a).)

<sup>4</sup> In some instances, for security or policy reasons, a lesser amount of remote access has been deemed appropriate. The party designee rule, rule 2.518, allows a party to designate other persons to have remote access to electronic records in actions or proceedings in which that person is a party. However, a party’s designee is not permitted remote access to criminal electronic records, juvenile justice electronic records, or child welfare electronic records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.518(b).) Also, parties may limit the scope of their designees’ access. (Id., rule 2.518(b)(2).)

The rules encourage courts to have the ability to generate audit trails (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.526) and require courts to impose reasonable conditions on remote access to, among other reasons, preserve the integrity of their records and prevent the unauthorized use of information. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.527.) Finally, the rules provide that remote access to records is a privilege and not a right, and that a court may, at any time and for any reason, terminate the permission it granted to a person to remotely access records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.528.)

3.4 Remote Access to Trial Court Records by Government Entities

In addition to providing expanded remote access for parties, their attorneys, and legal aid organizations, the Judicial Council adopted rules effective January 1, 2019, that provide greater remote access to electronic trial court records to government entities. (Cal. Rules of Court, rules 2.540–2.545.)

- Rule 2.540. Application and scope;
- Rule 2.541. Identity verification, identity management, and user access;
- Rule 2.542. Security of confidential information;
- Rule 2.543. Audit trails;
- Rule 2.544. Additional conditions of access; and
- Rule 2.545. Termination of remote access.

These rules (collectively the “government access rules”)—like the public access rules and the party access rules—have been carefully written to balance increased access with protecting the reasonable privacy interests of persons doing business with the courts.

Government entities are not given unfettered access to electronic records. Each entity is given remote access only to those types of electronic records that are necessary for the entity to carry out its legal responsibilities. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.540(a).) With respect to the records to which it is allowed access, a government entity may be given the same level of remote access to electronic records as the government entity would be legally entitled if a person working for the government entity were to appear at the courthouse to inspect court records in that case type. If a court record is confidential by law or sealed by court order and a person working for the government entity would not be legally entitled to inspect the court record at the courthouse, the court may not provide the government entity with remote access to the confidential or sealed electronic record. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.540(b)(2).)

Like the party access rules, the government access rules contain other safeguards to protect the privacy of parties. For instance, a court that allows government entities to have remote access to electronic records must have an identity verification method that verifies the identity of, and the unique credentials of, each person who is permitted remote access. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.541(b).) The government entity must approve the granting of access to that person, verify the person’s identity, and provide the court with all the information it needs to authorize that person to have access to electronic records. (Id., rule 2.541(d)(1).) Remote access to any confidential or sealed records must be provided through a secure platform, and any electronic transmission of the information must be encrypted. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.542(a).)

The rules encourage courts to have the ability to generate audit trails (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.543) and require courts to impose reasonable conditions on remote access, for among other reasons, to preserve the integrity of their records and prevent the unauthorized use of information. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.544.) Finally, the rules provide that remote access to records is a privilege and not a right, and that a court may, at any time and for any reason, terminate the permission it granted to a person to remotely access records. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.545.)

4. Financial Privacy in Civil and Criminal Cases

The constitutional right to privacy extends to one's personal financial information. (Valley Bank of Nevada v. Superior Court (1975) 15 Cal.3d 652, 656.) In court proceedings, this right of financial privacy is often protected by a particular statute or rule, as illustrated by the examples below. However, the right of financial privacy is not unlimited in scope. As discussed in the example in section 4.4 of this resource guide, a court has concluded that Family Code section 2014.6, the statute relied on by a participant in a divorce proceeding to close the records in that proceeding, was constitutionally overbroad. (See In re Marriage of Burkle (2006) 135 Cal.App.4th 1045, 1048.) Also, the Legislature has not made the Financial Privacy Act of 1977 applicable to the courts.

4.1 Fee Waivers

In civil cases, an application for an initial fee waiver, which contains personal financial information, is confidential. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.54.) Only the court and authorized court personnel, persons authorized by the applicant, and persons authorized by order of the court may have access to the application. No person may reveal any information contained in the application except as authorized by law or order of the court. However, the order granting a fee waiver is not confidential.

4.2 Requests for Funds

In criminal cases, an indigent defendant's requests for funds for payment of investigators, experts, and others to aid in presenting or preparing the defense in certain murder cases is confidential. This exemption applies to defendants in capital and life-without-parole murder cases under Penal Code section 190.05\(a\). (Pen. Code, § 987.9.)

4.3 Criminal Defendant's Statement of Assets

Defendant's Statement of Assets (form CR-115) is a mandatory Judicial Council form. It is confidential in the same manner as probation reports. (See Pen. Code, § 1202.4.)

4.4 Information about the Financial Assets and Liabilities of Parties to a Divorce Proceeding

In In re Marriage of Burkle (2006) 135 Cal.App.4th 1045, the court considered the constitutionality of Family Code section 2014.6 that requires a court, on the request of a party to a divorce proceeding, to seal any pleading that lists and provides the location or identifying information about the financial assets of the parties. The court concluded that section 2024.6 is unconstitutional on its face. The court stated: "While the privacy interests protected by section 2014.6 may override the First Amendment right of access in an appropriate case, the statute is not narrowly tailored to serve overriding privacy interests. Because less restrictive means exist to achieve the statutory objective, section 2014.6 operates as an undue burden on the First Amendment right of public access to court records." (Id. at p. 1048.)

4.5 Information Privacy Act Not Applicable to the Courts

A general protection for individuals' privacy rights is contained in the Information Practices Act of 1977. However, recognizing the special role that courts play in conducting the people's business and the need for openness in conducting that business, the Legislature has expressly exempted the courts from the application of that act. (See Civ. Code, § 1798.3(b)(1) [excluding from the definition of "agency" covered by the Information Privacy Act of 1977 "[a]ny agency established under Article VI of the California Constitution"—that is, the courts].)

4.6 Taxpayer Information

4.6.1 Confidential Statements of Taxpayer's Social Security Numbers

Confidential Statements of Taxpayer's Social Security Number on mandatory Judicial Council forms (forms WG-021 and WG-025) for use in connection with wage garnishments are confidential.

4.6.2 Income Tax Returns in Child Support Cases

In a proceeding involving child, family, or spousal support, if a judge finds that a tax return is relevant to disposition of the case, the tax return must be sealed and maintained as a confidential record of the court. (Fam. Code, § 3552.)

5. Privacy in Judicial Administrative Records

5.1 Public Access to Judicial Administrative Records (Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 10.500)

Rule 10.500 provides for public access to “judicial administrative records” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(c)(2)), which includes records of budget and management information related to the administration of the courts.

5.1.1 Policy

The rule is based on the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code, § 6250 et seq.) and is intended to be broadly construed to further the public’s right of access. Unless otherwise indicated, the terms used in this rule have the same meaning as under the Legislative Open Records Act (Gov. Code, § 9070 et seq.) and the California Public Records Act (Gov. Code, § 6250 et seq.) and must be interpreted consistently with the interpretation applied to the terms under those acts.

5.1.2 Scope of Access

Rule 10.500 covers only judicial administrative records and does not govern the public’s right to access “adjudicative records,” which are “writings” prepared, used, or filed in a court proceeding, relate to judicial deliberation, or the assignment or reassignment of cases of justices, judges, subordinate judicial officers, and the assignment or appointment of counsel by the court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(c)(1).) As discussed above, adjudicative records, or court records, are presumptively public, subject to exceptions as discussed in sections 2 and 3 of this resource guide.

Disclosable judicial administrative records include any nonadjudicative records (writings) containing information that relates to “the conduct of the people’s business that is prepared, owned, used, or retained by a court, regardless of the writing’s physical form or characteristics.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(c)(2).) However, personal information that is not related to the conduct of the people’s business—or material falling under a statutory exemption (see below)—is not disclosable and can be redacted from the public records that are produced or presented for review. (See City of San Jose v. Superior Court (2017) 2 Cal.5th 608.) This limitation on disclosure protects the privacy rights of government employees involved in creating public records.

Even if electronic communications are conducted on an agency employee or official’s personal device or personal e-mail account, they are disclosable if they pertain to the people’s business and are prepared, owned, used, or retained by a court or its personnel. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(b)(5); City of San Jose v. Superior Court (2017) 2 Cal.5th 608.) On the other hand, if the documents relate to purely personal information, that content is not disclosable. Pursuant to a rule 10.500 request, courts may ask their employees to search their own files, segregate public records from personal records, and submit an affidavit with sufficient factual basis for determining whether the contested items are public records or personal materials. (Id. at p. 628.)

5.1.3 Exemptions and Waiver of Exemptions

Rule 10.500\(f\) provides 12 categories of records that a court may exempt from disclosure. For the purpose of this resource guide, the most important of these categories is the exemption for personnel, medical, or similar files, or other personal information whose disclosure would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(3).)

Some of the other exempt categories include records that relate to pending or anticipated claims or litigation to which a judicial branch entity or its personnel are parties (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(2)); disclosure that is exempt or prohibited under state or federal law, including under the California Evidence Code relating to privilege or by court order in a court proceeding (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(5)); records that would reveal or compromise court security or safety of court personnel (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(6)); trade secrets, or confidential commercial or financial information (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(10)); and the catch-all exemption where, on the facts of a specific request, the public interest in withholding the record clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(12).)

Records relating to evaluations of complaints or investigations of judicial officers may be exempt under rule 10.500(f)(7). However, this exemption does not apply to settlement agreements entered into on or after January 1, 2010, for which public funds were spent in the settlement. Privacy concerns may justify redaction of names of complainants or witnesses and information that would identify such individuals. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(f)(7).)

A judicial branch entity's or judicial branch personnel's disclosure of a judicial administrative record that is exempt from disclosure pursuant to rule 10.500(f) or law waives the exemptions as to that specific record. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 10.500(h).) However, waiver does not apply to disclosures made in certain contexts as discussed in rule 10.500(h).

5.2 Criminal History Information

Summaries of criminal history information (also known as "rap sheets") are confidential. (Westbrook v. Los Angeles (1994) 27 Cal.App.4th 157, 164; Pen. Code, §§ 11105, 13300–13326.) Public officials have a duty to preserve the confidentiality of a defendant's criminal history. (Craig v. Municipal Court (1979) 100 Cal.App.3d 69, 76.) Unauthorized disclosure of criminal history violates a defendant's privacy rights under the California Constitution. (Ibid.) Courts have upheld the confidentiality assigned to criminal history records. (See, e.g., Westbrook, supra, 27 Cal.App.4th 157 [unauthorized private company was denied access to municipal court information computer system].)

6. Privacy of Witnesses, Jurors, and Other Nonparties

6.1 Witness and Victim Information

6.1.1 Confidential Information about Witnesses and Victims in Police, Arrest, and Investigative Reports

The court and the district attorney shall establish a mutually agreeable procedure to protect the confidential information of any witness or victim contained in police reports submitted to the court in support of a complaint, indictment, information, search warrant, or arrest warrant. (Pen. Code, § 964.)

6.1.2 Victim Impact Statements

Victim impact statements filed with the court must remain under seal until imposition of judgment and sentence, except that the court, the probation officer, and counsel for the parties may review such statements up to two days before the date set for imposition of judgment and sentence. (Pen. Code, § 1191.15\(b\).) Victim impact statements shall not be otherwise reproduced in any manner. (Pen. Code, § 1191.15\(c\).)

6.1.3 Information about Victims, Witnesses, and Others

Law enforcement agencies are prohibited from disclosing the address and phone number of a witness or victim, to an arrestee or potential defendant. (Pen. Code, § 841.5.) Similarly, defense counsel may not disclose the address or phone number of a victim or witness to the defendant or his or her family. (Pen. Code, § 1054.2.) If this information is contained in documents filed with the courts, it should be redacted before the documents are filed.

6.1.4 Identity of Sex Offense Victims

At the request of a victim of an alleged sexual offense, the court may order that the victim be treated anonymously. Upon a proper showing, the judge may order the identity of the victim in all records and during all proceedings to be either “Jane Doe” or “John Doe” if the judge finds that such an order is reasonably necessary to protect the alleged victim’s privacy and that such measures will not unduly prejudice the prosecution or defense. (Pen. Code, § 293.5.)

6.2 Juror Information

6.2.1 Juror Questionnaires of Those Jurors Not Called

The questionnaires of jurors not called to the jury box for voir dire are not open to the public. (Copley Press, Inc. v. Superior Court (1991) 228 Cal.App.3d 77, 87–88); but cf. Bellas v.

Superior Court of Alameda County (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 636, 645, fn. 6 [suggesting a contrary rule.]

6.2.2 Juror Questionnaires Answered under Advisement of Confidentiality

These records are not open to the public. (Pantos v. City and County of San Francisco (1984) 151 Cal.App.3d 258, 493–494 [jurors were told their answers on questionnaire were confidential].)

6.2.3 Confidentiality of Requests for Permanent Medical Excuse from Jury Service

Rule 2.1009, adopted effective January 1, 2019, provides a process for a person with a disability to request a permanent medical excuse from jury service in cases where the individual, with or without accommodations, including the provision of auxiliary aids or services, is incapable of performing jury service. The rule provides that the jury commissioner must keep confidential all information concerning the request for permanent medical excuse, including any accompanying request for disability-related accommodation, unless the applicant waives confidentiality in writing or the law requires disclosure. The applicant’s identity and confidential information may not be disclosed to the public but may be disclosed to court officials and personnel involved in the permanent medical excuse process. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.1009(c)(4).)

6.2.4 Sealed Juror Records in Criminal Courts

After the jury reaches a verdict in a criminal case, the court’s record of personal juror identifying information (including names, addresses, and phone numbers) must be sealed. (Code Civ. Proc., § 237\(a\)\(2\).) This is often accomplished by replacing juror names with numbers. Indeed, that is how appellate court records contain the relevant information while conforming to the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 237. The defendant or his or her counsel can petition the court for access to this information to aid in developing a motion for a new trial or for any other lawful purpose. (Code Civ. Proc., § 206\(f\).)

6.2.5 Records of Grand Jury Proceedings

Records of criminal grand jury proceedings are not open to the public unless an indictment is returned. If an indictment is returned, records of the grand jury proceeding are not open to the public until 10 days after a copy of the indictment has been delivered to the defendant or his or her attorney. (Pen. Code, § 938.1\(b\); Daily Journal Corp. v. Superior Court (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1117, 1124–1135.) If there is a “reasonable likelihood” that release of all or part of the transcript would prejudice the accused’s right to a fair trial, a judge may seal the records. (Pen. Code, §§ 929, 938.1; see Rosato v. Superior Court (1975) 51 Cal.App.3d 190.) Notwithstanding the confidential status of a record, in civil grand juries, a judge may order disclosure of certain evidentiary materials, as long as information identifying any person who provided information to the grand jury is removed. (Pen. Code, § 929.) Also, after an indictment is returned, the judge may order disclosure of nontestimonial portions of the grand jury proceedings to aid preparation of a motion to dismiss the indictment. (People v. Superior Court (Mouchaourab) (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 403, 434–436.)

6.2.6 Courts’ Inherent Power to Protect Jurors

Courts may exercise their discretion to seal juror records where a “compelling interest” exists, such as protecting jurors’ safety or privacy, protecting litigants’ rights, or protecting the public from injury. (Pantos v. City and County of San Francisco (1984) 151 Cal.App.3d 258, 262; Code Civ. Proc., § 237; see Townsel v. Superior Court (1999) 20 Cal.4th 1084, 1091.) Thus, any juror information that a judge orders sealed is not open to the public.

7. Privacy Protection for Judicial Officers

7.1 Privacy Protection Guidance for Judicial Officers

Government Code section 6254.21 prohibits persons or businesses from publicly posting or displaying on the Internet the home address and phone number of a judicial officer, if he or she has made a written demand of that person or business not to disclose that information. Upon request of a California trial court judge, commissioner, or referee, the Judicial Privacy Protection Program of the Judicial Council’s Security Operations unit will make such written demand to a predetermined list of major online data vendors. For further information, contact securityoperations@jud.ca.gov.

8. Court Websites: Best Practices

California courts use public websites extensively to conduct their business. All the trial and appellate courts have websites. These websites perform essential services. For example, they provide the public with key information about the courts. They provide access to local rules and forms needed for cases. They provide litigants with information about hearing dates and other calendar information. And they provide information to jurors about when and where to appear at court. Recently, websites have also become an increasingly important means for transacting business, such as paying for traffic tickets or scheduling hearings.

8.1 Privacy Statements

Like other institutions employing websites, courts need to advise the public and other users of the court’s privacy policies with regard to the use of their websites. Courts need to inform users about the information that is collected. A privacy statement on the website will explain how the court gathers information, how it uses it, and how the court will protect users’ privacy.

Each court will develop its own privacy statement relating to its website. A sample privacy statement is attached as Appendix 2 of this resource guide for courts to consider as they develop or revise their statements. In addition, a “sample terms of use” is attached as Appendix 3 of this resource guide.

8.2 Retention and Tracking of User Information and Data

8.2.1 Use of Cookies on Court Websites

To the extent that courts use cookies on their websites, it is advisable that they disclose such use in their privacy statements.

9. Video and Surveillance: Best Practices

9.1 Photographing, Recording, and Broadcasting in Court

California Rules of Court, rule 1.150 permits photographing, recording, and broadcasting of courtroom proceedings pursuant to a judge’s ruling on media requests and sets forth factors to be considered by a judge in determining whether to grant media requests for such activity. A judge may not permit media coverage of: proceedings held in chambers; proceedings closed to the public; jury selection; jurors or spectators; conferences between an attorney and a client, witness, or aide; conferences between attorneys; or conferences between counsel and the judge at the bench. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 1.150(e)(6).)

9.2 Security Cameras in Public Areas

The Judicial Council has recommended best practices and policies for security camera recordings in the courthouse, for retention schedules for downloading recordings, and for disclosures to the public or other parties. (See Fact Sheet: Recommendations on Security Camera Recordings Policy and Best Practices (Oct. 2015).) Further questions may be directed to the supervisor of the Judicial Council’s Security Operations unit.

10. Privacy and Information Security: Best Practices

10.1 Information Systems Controls Framework Template

The Judicial Council has developed an Information Systems Control Framework. This document provides guidance for the courts in developing best practices regarding information system security. It is available to authorized court personnel through the Judicial Resources Network.

10.2 How to Use the Information Systems Control Framework

The Information Systems Control Framework sets forth principles for developing best practices for privacy and information security but is not intended to establish specific procedures. For further guidance on how to use the Information Systems Control Network, courts should contact the Judicial Council's Information Technology office.

CIVIL LAW
1	Request for accommodations by persons with disabilities	Cal. Rules of Court, rule 1.100(c)(4)	“The court must keep confidential all information of the applicant concerning the request for accommodation”; this includes the identity of the applicant, all medical information, and all communications from the applicant.
2	Application to proceed in forma pauperis (i.e., application for waiver of fees and costs)	Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.54	Access to the application and to the information in the application is limited to court and authorized persons only.

3	Documents filed under seal (per court order)	Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550	A sealed record is a record that by court order is not open to inspection by the public.
4	Documents that are the subject of a motion to seal	Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.551(b)	A party requesting that a record be filed under seal must lodge it with the court. Unredacted records are lodged, with notice to parties that the records will be placed in the court file unless a motion to seal is filed and granted. Key Objectives	Status	Description
Continue development of a comprehensive statewide privacy resource guide addressing, among other things, electronic access to court records and data, to align with both state and federal requirements (completed 2018)	Completed
Continue development of court privacy resource guide, outlining the key requirements, contents, and provisions for courts to address within its specific privacy policy (completed 2018).	Completed
(a) Circulate the draft guide for branch comment; revise as appropriate.	Completed	The guide is the product of a collaborative multiyear effort, involving consultation with, and input from, numerous other Judicial Council advisory bodies, advisory body staff, court personnel, and council staff. Most recently, in February 2019, the guide was presented to the Court Executives and Trial Court Presiding Judges Advisory Committees. At the April 15, 2019 meeting, ITAC approval will be sought to publish the guide on the Court Records page of the Judicial Resource Network.

14.1. Rules Modernization: Uniform Formatting Rules for Electronic Documents

Highlight: Pending the Rules and Projects (RUPRO) Committee approval, the proposed uniform formatting rules will be circulated for public comment.

Key Objectives	Status	Description
(a) Develop uniform formatting rules for electronic documents filed or otherwise submitted to the appellate courts.	In Progress	JATS developed proposed rules for formatting electronic documents filed in or submitted to the appellate courts. AAC and ITAC have recommended that the proposal circulate for public comment. JCTC has approved the recommendation. On April 10, RUPRO will consider the recommendation. If RUPRO approves circulating the proposal, it will be out for comment from April 11 until June 10, 2019.

14.2. Modernize Appellate Court Rules

Highlight: Pending the Rules and Projects (RUPRO) Committee's approval, the proposal to amend rule 8.500 will circulate for public comment.

Key Objectives	Status	Description
(a) Numbering of materials in requests for judicial notice. Consider amending rule 8.252, which requires that materials to be judicially noticed be numbered consecutively, starting with page number one. The problem is that such materials are attached to a motion and declaration(s) and are electronically filed as one document, making pagination and reference to those materials in the briefs confusing for litigants and the courts. This project may be addressed by the uniform format rules project.	In Progress	This project has been included in the uniform formatting rules proposal.
(b) Method of notice to the court reporter. Consider whether to amend rule 8.405, which governs the filing of an appeal in juvenile cases, to remove or modify the requirement in subdivision (b)(1)(B) that the clerk notify the court reporter "by telephone and in writing" to prepare a transcript. This language may be outdated or inconsistent with other rules requiring notification by the clerk.	Not Started	Work on this project is scheduled for next year; any rule amendment to be effective 1/1/2021.
(c) Clarify the filing date of an e-filed document. Amend rule 8.77 to clarify that an e-filed document received by the court before midnight that meets the filing requirements is deemed to have been filed that day. This project addresses an ambiguity in the rule that has resulted in inconsistent treatment of e-filed documents that are received after business hours.	Not Started	Work on this project is scheduled for next year; any rule amendment to be effective 1/1/2021.

14.2. Modernize Appellate Court Rules (Cont'd)

Highlight: Pending the Rules and Projects (RUPRO) Committee's approval, the proposal to amend rule 8.500 will circulate for public comment.

Key Objectives	Status	Description
(d) Court of Appeal service copy of a petition for review. Amend rule 8.500(f)(1) to remove the requirement of a separate service copy of a petition for review. Once the Supreme Court accepts a petition for review for filing, the Court of Appeal automatically receives a filed/endorsed copy of the petition. The filing of the petition satisfies the service requirements for the Court of Appeal. This project is intended to eliminate an inefficiency.	In Progress	JATS developed a proposal to amend rule 8.500. AAC and ITAC recommend circulating the proposal for public comment. JCTC has approved the recommendation. RUPRO will consider the recommendation on April 10. If RUPRO approves circulating the proposal, it will be out for comment from April 11 until June 10, 2019.
(e) Amend rule 8.70 to clarify content. Consider amending rule 8.70 to clarify the subdivision (c)(2)(B) definition of a document and make subdivision (c)(2)(D) parallel with the rest of (c)(2).	Not Started	Work on this project is scheduled for next year; any rule amendment to be effective 1/1/2021.

14.3. E-Filing and E-Readers for Incarcerated Individuals

Highlight: A pilot program is being developed.
