Executive Summary

The Criminal Law Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council approve revisions to the Judicial Council abstract of judgment forms (forms CR-290, CR-290A, and CR-290.1) as required by recently enacted criminal justice realignment legislation.

Recommendation

The Criminal Law Advisory Committee recommends that the Judicial Council, effective January 2, 2012, approve the following revisions to Abstract of Judgment—Prison Commitment—Determinate (form CR-290), Abstract of Judgment—Prison Commitment Attachment Page (form CR-290-A), and Abstract of Judgment—Prison Commitment—Determinate Single, Concurrent, or Full-Term Consecutive Count Form (form CR-290.1):

1. Replace the phrase “prison commitment” with the word “felony” in the titles, headers, and footers of each form;

2. Add check boxes to the headers and item 4 on forms CR-290 and CR-290.1 for courts to note whether the abstracts pertain to prison or jail commitments;
3. Add the phrase “if prison commitment” to the “financial obligations” section on forms CR-290 (item 9a) and CR-290.1 (item 5) to clarify that Penal Code section 2085.5 applies only to prison commitments;
4. Add a data field on forms CR-290 (item 12) and CR-290.1 (item 10) for courts to note the imposition of a period of mandatory supervision under Penal Code section 1170(h)(5)(B);
5. Add a check box to forms CR-290 (item 17) and CR-290.1 (item 15) to note that the court ordered the defendant to be delivered to the county jail; and
6. Renumber other items accordingly.

The text of the proposed revisions to forms CR-290, CR-290A, and CR-290.1 is attached at pages 5–8.

Previous Council Action

The Judicial Council adopted forms CR-290 and CR-290.1 in 1977. Form CR-290A was adopted in 1981. Although the forms have been revised periodically since adoption—including revisions approved by the Judicial Council as recently as October 28, 2011, and effective January 1, 2012—none of the previous revisions is relevant to this proposal.

The form revisions that became effective January 1, 2012, were required, in part, by unrelated legislation and developed before the enactment of criminal justice realignment legislation. To clearly distinguish the two sets of revisions, the committee recommends that the revisions proposed in this report become effective January 2, 2012—one day after the effective date of the earlier revisions.

Rationale for Recommendation

Revisions required by statute

Recent criminal justice realignment legislation¹ enacted sweeping changes to long-standing sentencing laws effective October 1, 2011, including replacing prison sentences with county jail commitments for certain felonies and eligible defendants, and authorizing courts to impose a period of mandatory supervision upon a defendant’s release from county jail under newly added Penal Code section 1170(h)(5)(B).

¹ Assem. Bill 109 (Committee on Budget; Stats. 2011, ch. 15); Assem. Bill 117 (Committee on Budget; Stats. 2011, ch. 39); ABX1 17 (Blumenfield; Stats. 2011, ch. 12).

The realignment legislation also amended Penal Code section 1213, which requires courts to provide custody officials with abstracts of judgments in felony matters. Specifically, Penal Code section 1213 was amended to require courts to provide custody officials with abstracts of judgments in all felony cases resulting in county jail commitments under newly added Penal Code section 1170(h).

Felony abstracts of judgments must be “prescribed by the Judicial Council.” (Pen. Code, § 1213.5.) If a court uses a minute order in lieu of an abstract, “the first page or pages shall be identical in form and content to that prescribed by the Judicial Council for an abstract of judgment, and other matters as appropriate may be added thereafter.” (Pen. Code, § 1213(b).) Because current Judicial Council abstract of judgment forms do not include information regarding county jail commitments and periods of mandatory supervision under Penal Code section 1170(h)(5)(B), the current forms require revisions.

Form changes

To update the Judicial Council abstract of judgment forms as required by recently amended Penal Code section 1213, the committee proposes the following:

- County jail commitments. To clarify that the forms now apply to prison and county jail commitments, the committee proposes (a) replacing the phrase “prison commitment” with the word “felony” in the titles, headings, and footers of each form; (b) adding new check boxes to item 4 of forms CR-290 and CR-290.1 for courts to clearly indicate whether the defendant was sentenced to a prison or county jail commitment; (c) adding a check box to forms CR-290 (item 17) and CR-290.1 (item 15) to note that the court ordered the defendant to be delivered to the county jail; and (d) adding the phrase “if prison commitment” to the “financial obligations” section on forms CR-290 (item 9a) and CR-290.1 (item 5) to clarify that Penal Code section 2085.5 applies only to prison commitments.
- Mandatory supervision. To ensure that the forms include information regarding sentences in which mandatory supervision under Penal Code section 1170(h)(5)(B) is imposed, the committee proposes adding data fields on forms CR-290 (item 12) and CR-290.1 (item 10) for courts to specify the length of the jail term and the corresponding period of mandatory supervision.

Comments, Alternatives Considered, and Policy Implications

This proposal has not yet circulated for public comment. Because the proposed revisions are noncontroversial and statutorily mandated as of October 1, 2011, the committee unanimously recommends that the Judicial Council approve the proposed revisions without a prior public comment period to ensure that the forms are available for use by courts as soon as possible. To facilitate future committee consideration of public feedback, the Judicial Council’s Rules and Projects Committee will circulate the forms for public comment during the winter. The committee would return to the council with any further recommendations based on comments received.

Implementation Requirements, Costs, and Operational Impacts

Expected costs are limited to court staff training and the production of new forms. No implementation requirements or operational impacts are expected.
