Subject

Invitation for 2026 Judicial Council Membership
Nominations

The Executive and Planning Committee of the Judicial Council of California is soliciting nominations to fill vacancies on the Judicial Council.

As the policymaking body for California's judicial branch, the Judicial Council sets the direction and provides the leadership for improving the quality and advancing the consistent, independent, impartial, and accessible administration of justice. We strive for an experienced, diverse, and inclusive membership to help guide the judicial branch in fulfilling this mission.

The information below details the vacancies to be filled and the application process to be completed by February 18, 2026. We welcome your interest and nominations to serve the people of California as a member of the Judicial Council.

Under the leadership of the Chief Justice and in accordance with the California Constitution, the council establishes policies and sets priorities for the judicial branch of government.

Judicial Council Vacancies

Nominations are sought to fill four voting positions:

- Four superior court judges.

Nominations are also sought to fill four nonvoting positions:

- One court commissioner
- Three court administrators

The effective date for the eight appointments is September 15, 2026.

Council Membership and Responsibilities

The Chief Justice appoints council members to these positions on recommendations from the Executive and Planning Committee as provided in the California Rules of Court¹. Prior service on Judicial Council advisory bodies, task forces, and working groups is desirable. A description of the council's mission, guiding principles, membership, and terms of service appears in the California Rules of Court (title 10, Judicial Administration Rules), rules 10.1 through 10.16. Additional information about the function and membership of the council is available in article VI, section 6 of the California Constitution.

Rule 10.2\(e\) of the California Rules of Court provides that neither voting council members nor nonvoting advisory council members may concurrently serve on both the Judicial Council and an advisory body unless the provision is waived by the Chief Justice. For example, if you are appointed to the council and you are currently an advisory body member, your membership on the advisory body will conclude on the time of appointment to the council.

Members' Terms and Time Commitment

Voting and advisory members of the Judicial Council serve for three-year terms unless a position is vacated before the term's completion.²

Members attend approximately 5 one- to three-day council meetings per year. Each member is also appointed to an internal committee of the council, which requires participation in an additional 10 to 20 committee meetings per year (in person or by videoconference). Current members estimate that, in addition to attending meetings, they spend three to four days per month on council-related tasks.

¹ California Rules of Court, rule 10.11(g) states, "The committee recommends candidates to the Chief Justice for appointment to the Judicial Council and its advisory bodies."

² California Rules of Court, rule 10.2(a)(2) states, in part: "A vacancy is filled by the appointing power for the remainder of the term."

Appointees will be asked to attend an orientation tentatively scheduled on Thursday, July 16, 2026, and invited to observe the Judicial Council meetings on Friday, July 17.

How to Apply

The nomination form has two parts: Part One and Part Two. Part One can be completed by the nominee or nominator. Part Two is to be completed and signed by the nominee. Please note that for multiple nominations, the nominee is required to submit Part Two of the nomination form only once.

Please complete the nomination form online or at California Courts Website. Alternatively, you may also complete the attached, fillable PDF form and submit it along with the nominee's biography or curriculum vitae by Wednesday, February 18, 2026.

Before nominating someone, please ascertain that the nominee is interested and available to serve if selected. Self-nominations are highly encouraged.
