Return of Beyond the Bench Conference Encourages Collaboration to Support Children, Families, and Communities in California

California Courts Newsroom, By Karen Datangel, Dec 9, 2025

The theme of this year's conference was Coming Together Again to Support Children, Families, and Communities, based on the need to improve collaboration within the broader child welfare system affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, staff turnover, and other factors. This year's workshops highlighted the court partnerships, voices of lived experience, and topics impacting children and families involved in juvenile dependency and delinquency cases, including cross-over legal issues such as mental health and trauma-informed practice.

IN THE NEWS

Oklahoma asks SCOTUS to ignore Muscogee citizen tax dispute or 'revisit McGirt' ruling

Oklahoma Public Media Exchange, By Sarah Liese, Robby Korth, December 3, 2025

Attorneys for Oklahoma's Tax Commission are asking the U.S. Supreme Court not to hear the tax dispute of a Muscogee Nation citizen. But if they do, they should "revisit" the landmark McGirt ruling. Stroble v. Oklahoma Tax Commission could have major implications for tribal nations across the U.S. if the Supreme Court decides to rule on it.

New industry standard calls for better record-keeping to protect Indigenous data

Indian Country Today, By Daniel Herrera Carbajal, December 4, 2025

A new standard developed in partnership with Indigenous data sovereignty experts at the University of Arizona, New York University, Harvard University and multiple international universities outlines how scientists and technology professionals should record the origin and history of use for data about and relating to Indigenous people.

Manitoba begins new landfill search for missing Indigenous women

Indian Country Today, By Miles Morrisseau, December 5, 2025

Following years of advocacy by families, supporters and Indigenous leaders, a new search is underway for two missing Indigenous women whose remains are believed to be in the Brady Landfill near Winnipeg.

How the gaming economy helps tribes navigate shifting policies

High Country News, By Shaun Griswold, December 8, 2025

The $43.9 billion tribes reported to the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC) last year accounts for nearly 40% of the nation's $115 billion in gaming revenue, according to the American Gaming Association. And tribes are using that money to fund health care, education, small business, philanthropy and other much-needed programs.

Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel on Thursday announced the launch of a statewide criminal investigation into Indian boarding schools and related institutions that once operated in Michigan.

Oklahoma AG's opinion orders wildlife officials to stop ticketing tribal citizens on reservations

Oklahoma Public Media Exchange, By Graycen Wheeler, December 19, 2025

"Our treaty rights, grounded in the U.S. Constitution and in federal law, protect the rights of tribal citizens to hunt and fish on reservation land, and no state law permits the Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation to claim otherwise," he said. Since 2024, members of the five largest tribes headquartered in Oklahoma — the Cherokee, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Muscogee and Seminole Nations — have been able to hunt on the reservations of all five tribes under the Five Tribes Wildlife Management Reciprocity Agreement.

North Carolina's Lumbee Tribe receives full federal recognition after 137-year effort

NPR News, By Kristin Wright, December 20, 2025

The Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina has 55,000 members. The tribal territory is located in the southeastern part of the state in Robeson, Hoke, Cumberland, and Scotland Counties. Federal recognition opens the door to an expanse of federal resources for tribes.

Ute Indian Tribe sues Colorado for discrimination in state parks Legislation

The Denver Post, By Lauren Penington, December 26, 2025

The Ute Indian Tribe of the Uintah and Ouray Reservation is suing Colorado for discrimination in federal court, alleging that a recently passed law denies the Tribe equal access to its ancestral lands. That law, Colorado Revised Statute § 33-12-103.8, provides free access to Colorado's state parks for the Southern Ute Indian Tribe and the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe, but does not include the Ute Indian Tribe of the Uintah and Ouray Reservation.

These programs are supported with funds from the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice that are administered through the Governor's Office of Emergency Services (CalOES), the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Court Improvement Program, and the California Department of Social Services.

College of Law; University of Arizona - Law Library, Samantha Ginsburg, Georgetown University Law Library, Kristen Cook, University of Arizona - Law Library, Date Written: December 02, 2025

The goal of this paper is to explore and analyze the University of Arizona's historical and ongoing enrichment from land taken from Indigenous peoples by the federal government and transferred to the territory and, later, the state of Arizona in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries for the benefit of institutions of higher education. A comprehensive understanding of Arizona's history and the state's current holdings and financial benefits is required to examine the policy implications and moral and legal obligations that Arizona and its universities have to Indigenous peoples in Arizona.

2025 Court Statistics Report Statewide Caseload Trends 2014–15 Through 2023–24, Judicial Council of California, 2025

The Court Statistics Report is published annually by the Judicial Council of California and is designed to fulfill the provisions of article VI, section 6 of the California Constitution, which requires the Judicial Council to survey the condition and business of the California courts. The Court Statistics Report combines 10-year statewide summaries of superior court filings and dispositions with similar workload indicators for the California Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal. The 2025 Court Statistics Report also provides more detailed information on filings and dispositions in the individual superior courts for the most recent fiscal year for which data are available, 2023–24.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2025 Implementation and Tribal Model Court Sites Project Call for Applications

National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ)

The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) is pleased to invite applicants from state and tribal dependency courts to participate in the Implementation Sites Project. The NCJFCJ, with funding from the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), has partnered with courts across the country since 1992 to improve the way courts handle child abuse and neglect proceedings, and to improve the court experience for children and families.

The NCJFCJ is selecting new state and tribal court sites to participate in this two-year project. The selected sites will receive training, technical assistance, and support from the NCJFCJ and national experts to implement the principles and recommendations set forth in the Enhanced Resource Guidelines, the NCJFCJ's blueprint for best practices in abuse and neglect proceedings. New implementation sites will be "laboratories for change" as they work to implement best practices in child welfare proceedings while sharing with, and learning from, nearly 30 other sites across the country. There is no direct funding available for participating courts.

2025 Implementation and Tribal Model Court Sites Project

National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges

Deadline: January 9, 2026

NCJFCJ is selecting court sites to participate in the Implementation Sites Project. The sites will receive targeted training, technical assistance, and support from NCJFCJ staff over a two-year period to implement the best practices identified in the ERGs (Enhanced Resource Guidelines) which include: One family—One Judge case assignment, time-specific calendaring, children in court, use of alternative dispute resolution methods, substantive high-quality hearings and pre-petition attorney representation. The project is divided into three phases.

Housing Assistance for Victims of Human Trafficking

Department of Justice

Office for Victims of Crime

O-OVC-2025-172519

Deadline: February 24, 2026

This funding opportunity will provide funding for housing and support services to victims of human trafficking. The primary focus of this program is to provide rapid rehousing (i.e., transitional housing and supportive services that assist human trafficking victims in moving as quickly as possible into permanent housing and achieving stability). Projects under this program must be used for one or more of the following purposes: (1) transitional housing, including funding for the operating expenses of a newly developed or existing transitional housing program; and (2) short-term housing assistance, including rental or utilities payment assistance and assistance with related expenses, such as payment of security deposits and other costs incidental to relocation to transitional housing.

Integrated Services for Minor Victims of Human Trafficking

Department of Justice

Office for Victims of Crime

O-OVC-2025-172521

Deadline: February 24, 2026

This funding opportunity will support programs to enhance the availability, quality, and delivery of services tailored to the developmental stages and needs of young (minor) victims of human trafficking.

Preventing Trafficking of Girls

Department of Justice

Office for Victims of Crime

O-OVC-2025-172480

Deadline: February 24, 2026

This funding opportunity will develop or enhance prevention and early intervention services for girls who are at risk of, or are victims of, sex and/or labor trafficking. Funding will be provided to programs that replicate and scale up prevention and early intervention programs; and implement or enhance efforts to identify and provide comprehensive services to girls/young women who are at risk of, or are victims of, sex and/or labor trafficking through activities such as street outreach, partnerships with organizations that serve youth, partnerships with juvenile justice and child welfare systems, and/or collaboration with other key community stakeholders.

YouthBuild 2025

Department of Labor
Employment and Training Administration
FOA-ETA-26-38

Deadline: March 2, 2026

Under this Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA), DOL will award grants through a competitive process to eligible public or private non-profit organizations or Tribal entities to provide pre-apprenticeship occupational skills training, education, and job placement services to opportunity youth. YouthBuild prepares participants for quality jobs in various industry sectors, and includes wrap-around supportive services such as assistance in transportation, childcare, and housing. YouthBuild programs must offer participants construction training and hands-on experiences building affordable housing for their community. Programs may also include a Construction Plus component, providing vocational training in additional high-demand industries.

Enhanced Collaborative Model (ECM) Task Force to Combat Human Trafficking

Department of Justice
Office for Victims of Crime
O-OVC-2025-172524

Deadline: March 11, 2026

This funding opportunity will support jurisdictions to develop and expand a multidisciplinary, collaborative task force approach to better respond to human trafficking through increased victim identification, service provision, and case investigations. Each lead applicant is required to submit their entity's application separately into JustGrants (one application submitted by an eligible lead law enforcement agency and one application submitted by an eligible lead victim service organization).

Improving Outcomes for Child and Youth Victims of Human Trafficking

Department of Justice
Office for Victims of Crime
O-OVC-2025-172523

Deadline: March 11, 2026

This funding opportunity will develop, enhance, and coordinate programs and activities geared toward improving outcomes for child and youth victims of sex and labor trafficking. Outcomes for child and youth victims of human trafficking will be improved through the development and implementation of a statewide or Tribal jurisdiction-wide strategic plan addressing challenges related to identifying and serving child and youth victims of sex and labor trafficking, as well as identifying, investigating, and prosecuting traffickers.

Services for Victims of Human Trafficking

Department of Justice
Office for Victims of Crime
O-OVC-2025-172520

Deadline: March 11, 2026

This funding opportunity will develop, expand, and strengthen victim service programs for victims of all forms of human trafficking throughout the United States and its territories. This program provides funding for comprehensive and specialized services for victims of all forms of human trafficking and is intended for victim services programs serving adults or a combination of adults and minors/youth.

2025-26 Listos California Tribal Grant Program

Cal OES-Governor's Office of Emergency Services

Deadline: April 8, 2026

The purpose of the Listos California Tribal Grant (LI) Program is to support federally recognized tribes located in California and nonprofits that serve tribal governments to increase disaster preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation capabilities in tribal communities. Tribal governments and nonprofits can work independently, with other tribal governments, or with local nonprofits to provide disaster preparedness information and resources to tribal communities.

PREVIOUSLY REPORTED GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

Tribal Homekey+ 2024 Notice of Funding Availability

California Department of Housing and Community Development

Deadline: Application portal opens late January 2025 and open until all funds are awarded

Tribal Homekey+ is the Permanent Supportive Housing component of the BHIBA. This funding represents the Department's ongoing investment in Tribal housing opportunities and continues a statewide effort to sustain and rapidly expand permanent supportive housing for households and individuals who are experiencing homelessness or at risk of homelessness and are living with a behavioral health challenge. Rather than utilizing a set-aside within the standard Homekey+ Program, this NOFA operates independently and is tailored to meet the specific affordable housing needs of California Tribes. Website: <https://www.hcd.ca.gov/grants-and-funding/tribal-homekey-plus> Email: HKTribal@hcd.ca.gov.

Department of Health and Human Services

Administration for Children and Families - ACYF/CB

HHS-2025-ACF-ACYF-CA-0074

Deadline: January 22, 2026

This funding opportunity will create a National Center to improve data collection and reporting about child maltreatment fatalities. Effective cross-agency coordination and understanding of child maltreatment fatality data can help states collect quality, comprehensive data. States, jurisdictions, and their partners, including tribes, can use that information to develop cross-agency intervention and system reform efforts. The National Center on Child Maltreatment Fatality Data Practices and Reporting will serve as a national resource in this effort and collaborate with agencies addressing this issue.
