The Judicial Council of California Language Access Plan Implementation Task Force has scheduled two community outreach meetings to discuss efforts to implement the Strategic Plan for Language Access in the California Courts. The first meeting will be held on October 20, 2015 in Los Angeles.

The October 20th meeting is intended to provide attendees with an understanding of California's current Language Access Plan implementation developments and initiatives, with a focus on three areas of interest: the expansion of interpreters into civil matters; education efforts with regard to language access and the development of a living tool-kit for court users, court staff and stakeholders; and Language Access Plan implementation monitoring efforts, funding initiatives and next steps.
