Executive Summary and Origin

The Criminal Law Advisory Committee proposes adding two new advisements to the felony plea form in light of recent case law and Proposition 36 (“The Homelessness, Drug Addiction, and Theft Reduction Act”) approved by voters in the General Election on November 5, 2024. The committee also recommends clarifying language about the factual basis for the plea.

Background

Recent case law and legislation require two new advisements in specified felony cases. In In re Tellez (2024) 17 Cal.5th 77, the Supreme Court held that a trial court must advise a defendant along the following lines when pleading guilty or no contest to a sexually violent offense under Welfare and Institutions Code section 6600(a)(2) and (b), or when the court is aware that the defendant has a prior conviction for a sexually violent offense:

“At the end of your sentence for this offense, you may be subject to screening by the State Department of State Hospitals to determine whether you qualify for trial as a sexually violent predator, which could result in your being committed to a secure medical facility indefinitely.”

(In re Tellez, supra, 17 Cal.5th, at pp. 92–93.)

This proposal has not been approved by the Judicial Council and is not intended to represent the views of the council, its Rules Committee, or its Legislation Committee. It is circulated for comment purposes only.

To ensure that the record is complete, the court held that trial courts “should also inquire whether the parties discussed the possibility of a disposition involving a plea to an offense that is not a sexually violent offense.” (Id. at p. 93.)

The court also noted that the rule applies solely to individuals pleading guilty or no contest to Sexually Violent Predator Act qualifying offenses, that it does not impose additional admonition requirements in the taking of other pleas, and that it applies prospectively from the date the opinion becomes final. (Ibid.)

Proposition 36 also added a new advisement for persons convicted of specified felony drug offenses:

The court shall advise a person who is convicted of, or who pleads guilty or no contest to, a violation of Section 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, or 11379.6 involving a hard drug, of the following: “You are hereby advised that it is extremely dangerous and deadly to human life to illicitly manufacture, distribute, sell, furnish, administer, or give away any drugs in any form, including real or counterfeit drugs or pills. You can kill someone by engaging in this conduct. All drugs and counterfeit pills are dangerous to human life. These substances alone, or mixed, kill human beings in very small doses. If you illicitly manufacture, distribute, sell, furnish, administer, or give away any real or counterfeit drugs or pills, and that conduct results in the death of a human being, you could be charged with homicide, up to and including the crime of murder, within the meaning of Section 187 of the Penal Code.”

(Health & Saf. Code, § 11369(b).)

The advisory statement must be provided to the defendant in writing, either on a plea form, if used, as an addendum to a plea form, or at sentencing, and the fact that the advisory was given must be specified on the record and recorded in the abstract of the conviction. (Health & Saf. Code, § 11369(c).)

The Proposal

The committee proposes the following revisions to Plea Form, With Explanations and Waiver of Rights—Felony (form CR-101):¹

- Add new item 3h, Sexually Violent Predator Civil Commitment, notifying a defendant convicted of a sexually violent offense as defined in the Sexually Violent Predator Act or previously convicted of a sexually violent offense under the act, that at the end of the sentence for the offense the defendant may be subject to screening by the State Department of State Hospitals to determine whether the defendant qualifies for trial as a sexually violent predator, which could result in a commitment to a secure medical facility indefinitely.

¹ The Judicial Council approved revisions to form CR-101 effective January 1, 2025. (See Jud. Council of Cal. Advisory Com. Rep., Criminal Law: Firearm and Body Armor Prohibitions (Sept. 9, 2024), <https://jcc.legistar.com/View.ashx?M=F&ID=13299281&GUID=4056204B-3920-4B86-A4BD-D982AA8C937C>.) Because the form was so recently revised, the revisions effective January 1, 2025 are included in the attached form in green highlighting.

- Add a new finding (number 6) to the Court’s Findings and Order (page 8 of the form) stating that the court finds that for convictions of a sexually violent offense, the parties discussed the possibility of a disposition involving a plea to an offense that is not a sexually violent offense. The committee recommends this addition to ensure the record in a case involving a plea to a sexually violent offense is complete (see In re Tellez, supra, 17 Cal.5th, at p. 93.)

To incorporate the advisement under new Health and Safety Code section 11369(b), the committee proposes the following revision:

- Add new item 11b, advising defendants convicted of specified drug offenses as statutorily required.

To clarify the provisions on the factual basis for the plea and to make them more accurate, the committee proposes the following revisions:

- Add new item 9b(1), an option for a defendant to admit facts establishing all elements of the offense as to each count, as the factual basis for the plea.
- Renumber current item 9b(1) as 9b(2) and revise it to state that documents offered as a factual basis for the plea are in the record or are attached to the plea form to become part of the record.
- Renumber current item 9b(2), the item on pleading guilty or no contest to take advantage of a plea agreement, as item 9c and revise it to add a cite to North Carolina v. Alford (1970) 400 U.S. 25² and state that it may also be to avoid conviction of a greater offense.³
- Revise the attorney’s statement on page 7 of the form to state that documents offered as a factual basis for the plea are in the record or are attached to the plea form to become part of the record.

Finally, in item 3b(3), the committee recommends replacing “pursuant to” with “under” to comport with the council’s style for drafting forms.

² In North Carolina v. Alford, the Supreme Court held that a defendant may plead guilty in order to take advantage of a plea bargain while still asserting innocence.

³ See People v. West (1970) 3 Cal.3d 595, 611 (court may accept bargained plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any lesser offense reasonably related to offense charged).

Alternatives Considered

The committee did not consider the alternative of not revising the form because it determined that it was necessary to revise the form to implement new case law and legislation.

For the advisement under In re Tellez, the committee discussed whether to refer to sexually violent offenses under Welfare and Institutions Code section 6600(a)(2) and (b), similar to the opinion. However, to include all potential qualifying offenses and avoid having to revise the form if statutes are renumbered in the future, the committee proposes referring to sexually violent offenses as defined in the Sexually Violent Predator Act.

Two members of the committee, an appellate justice and a defense attorney, proposed modifying the advisement to read as follows:

If I am convicted of a sexually violent offense or have a prior conviction for a sexually violent offense and am ever committed to the custody of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, I may at the conclusion of that term be subject to screening by the State Department of State Hospitals to determine whether I meet the criteria for indeterminate commitment as a sexually violent predator and, potentially, be made subject to civil commitment proceedings.

The members wanted to provide the clearest advisement for impacted defendants and thought that referencing custody in the California Department of Corrections as a condition precedent to screening by the Department of State Hospitals for a sexually violent predator determination would appropriately narrow the scope of the advisement because the Supreme Court's advisement was potentially overinclusive. The members were also concerned that some of the Supreme Court's language, such as "qualify for trial" and commitment to a "secure medical facility," could be confusing for defendants. However, the majority of the committee preferred to include the language of the Supreme Court's advisement in In re Tellez, finding that it was sufficient to fulfill the court's obligation to take a plea that is knowing, intelligent, and voluntary. The committee seeks specific comments on whether to add additional language to narrow the scope of the advisement.

Fiscal and Operational Impacts

Expected costs include training, case management system updates, and the production of new forms.

Request for Specific Comments

In addition to comments on the proposal as a whole, the advisory committee is interested in comments on the following:

- Does the proposal appropriately address the stated purpose?
- Should the committee consider a more specific advisement regarding the possibility of an indeterminate civil commitment as a sexually violent predator for defendants convicted of sexually violent offenses?

The advisory committee also seeks comments from courts on the following cost and implementation matters:

- Would the proposal provide cost savings? If so, please quantify.
- What would the implementation requirements be for courts—for example, training staff (please identify position and expected hours of training), revising processes and procedures (please describe), changing docket codes in case management systems, or modifying case management systems?
- Would two months from Judicial Council approval of this proposal until its effective date provide sufficient time for implementation?
- How well would this proposal work in courts of different sizes?

k. Firearms (Guns), Firearm Parts, and Ammunition Prohibition and Relinquishment

I understand that under federal and state law a conviction in this case prohibits me from owning, using, purchasing, receiving, or having under my custody or control firearms (guns), firearm parts, ammunition, reloaded ammunition, and ammunition feeding devices, including but not limited to magazines, for life. This includes firearm receivers and frames, and any item that may be used as or easily turned into a receiver or frame (see Penal Code section 16531). I must relinquish any firearms and firearm parts I own, possess, or have under my custody or control (see Penal Code section 29810).

l. Body Armor Prohibition and Relinquishment

I have a right, through my counsel, to participate in jury selection.

b. Right to a Court Trial

I understand that, as an alternative to a jury trial, if the prosecutor agrees, I may give up a jury trial and have a court trial in which the judge alone, without a jury, hears the evidence. I still could not be convicted unless, after hearing all of the evidence, the judge was convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that I am guilty.
