Keenan Supply | Eureka, CA

Keenan Supply came to Eureka in 1970, and in 1983 we became part of the HAJOCA family. We have established our place as Humboldt County's leading wholesale plumbing supplier by proving our commitment to our customers, providing what they need with accuracy and efficiency. Our team of 6 has over 120 years of combined experience, supplying a large variety of plumbing products, so you can rest assured you'll get the right product the first time. The buying power of one of the nation's largest wholesale plumbing distributors allows us to make "purchasing" the simplest part of your job. Come by for coffee and pick up a credit application. We look forward to earning your business.
