Administrative Office of the Courts, Office of Court Construction and Management
Subject
Addendum No. 3 Request for Qualifications for ID/IQ A & E Services RFQ OCCM-FY2006-03

1. Questions submitted by Shah Kawasaki Architects before the deadline but inadvertently overlooked:
  - Is courts experience necessary to pursue an ID/IQ contract? Answer: no.
  - Would it benefit us to add a courts planning consultant? Answer: see Addendum 1, item 1; court planning (as with all disciplines) may be proposed to be in-house or via a consultant.

2. Firms emailing “intent to respond” (see Addendum 1 for remainder of list)

Note: The “intent to respond” is for the convenience of the design community and the AOC; it is not necessary to be on the list to submit an SOQ. The AOC does not anticipate posting any further firm names received.
