Re: Public Private Partnership (P3) Consultant for new Long Beach Courthouse

We would like to express our appreciation to all of the firms that participated in our Public-Private Partnership (P3) Consultant selection process. We understand that it takes a considerable investment of talent and resources to respond to requests for proposals and to prepare for an interview.

After consideration of the proposals and the results of interviews, the Administrative Office of the Courts has elected to enter into contract negotiations with Ernst & Young Orenda Corporate Finance Inc. as the consultant on a public private partnership for the new Long Beach Courthouse for the Superior Court of Los Angeles County. Final selection of this firm is dependant on the reaching agreement on a contract.

Again, we extend our sincere thanks for the participation of all the submitting teams.

Sincerely,

Clifford Ham
