

Amador County Dependency Representation, RFP# CFCC-012414-ACDR-CF

The Judicial Council of California, Administrative Office of the Courts seeks the services of one or more service providers for high quality, cost-effective legal representation for parties in juvenile dependency proceedings conducted at the Superior Court of California, County of Amador. Representation is for all children and parents in juvenile dependency proceedings in Amador County, including all parent or child cases in which there is a conflict of interest. The purpose of this Request for Proposals (RFP) is to solicit proposals from qualified professionals and to award contracts. This RFP is the means for prospective contractors to submit their qualifications and request selection as a contractor.

Proposals will be considered from all juvenile dependency provider types, including but not limited to:

- Solo practitioners and partnerships;
- Government agencies;
- Non-profit organizations;
- Private firms;
- Panel organizational configurations; and
- Any combination of the above.
