1. Question: If the hotel does not have the state maximum available for the sleeping rooms should they still bid?

Judicial Council Response: Yes, the hotel should still bid their best available rate.

2. Question: Can we offer a higher rate than the food and beverage state maximum rates?

Judicial Council Response: No. We ask that you offer a menu that fits in the food and beverage state rates.

3. Question: How do you indicate different pricing for the sleeping room rate for different dates?

Judicial Council Response: You can note which set of dates and pricing in the “confirm daily room rate cell:

Date	Type of Sleeping Room	Estimated Number of Sleeping Rooms	Confirm number of rooms able to provide	Confirm daily room rate (w/o taxes & surcharges)	Confirm daily individual room rate w/ surcharges and/or tax (if applicable)
Date 1 Monday	Single Occupancy	60		1 st choice: $140 2 nd Choice: $175 3 rd choice: $110

4. Question: What if the hotel can't offer crescent rounds?

Judicial Council Response: The hotel should offer what they can provide. If you can offer rounds of 7 or 10, note that in the meeting space and change the font color to call out the change. The group would like to avoid theater style.

5. Question: Can the general session be used as the meal room?

Judicial Council Response: We cannot use the general session room as the meal room. When it's not being used as the general session room it will be used as a breakout room.

6. Question: Is the $10,000 max room rental per day or for the full conference?

Judicial Council Response: The $10,000 room rental is for the full program. Hotels are ranked head to head and if all responses received are over $10,000 meeting room rental they'll be marked down based on the rates they offered.

5. Question: Are the breakouts concurrent or consecutive?

Judicial Council Response: The breakouts are happening concurrently.
